Surrender of Tarlac and of the Rebels'
Arms Mark the Beginning of the

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Sun's Manila special says the surrender of Tarlac practically means the end of the effective operations of the so-called Filipino government. Hereafter the insurrectionary organization will simply be a vest-pocket, pillar-to-post affair, whose crucifix-sworn, death-on-the-field heroes will be scattered into bands of bandits. The insurrection will become simply a matter of brigandage.
Aguinaldo undoubtedly hopes to re-establish some form of government at Bayombong, but will surely be fooled. He is skillfully seeking a rabbit warren which may enable him to avoid capture for months. But he will never again have time to organize anything anywhere. He will never again be long enough in one place to set the wheels of government going.
Perhaps the Sun correspondent may be oversanguine, but this statement is based on a careful review of the whole situation by one who is on the spot. The correspondent does not mean to say that the fighting is ended, but that the so-called rebel government is practically defunct. Fighting will possibly continue on a small scale for some time. It is impossible to stop fighting entirely, while the Filipinos have guns which they easily conceal and which are so hard to capture.
Aguinaldo has a hidden refuge, and certainly built up a wonderful organization. The Spaniards never encountered any such rebellion and their fighting never could be compared with that of the Americans, yet they were always able to suppress previous rebellions.
This week's successes recall Gen. Otis's declaration in the spring, to the effect that 35,000 troops then could suppress the insurrection. Hardly half that number of men are engaged in present operations, yet the way all organized rebellion is going to pieces proves that Gen. Otis's statement was justified. The American troops have accomplished tremendous work in the face of difficulties which it is impossible to exaggerate.
The surrender of arms to MacArthur marks the beginning of the end, and the practical disappearance of the insurgents in any force. It also indicates the correctness of Gen. Otis's recent information, to the effect that the insurgent forces were disintegrating. The break in the line between Wheaton and Lawton; that is, the failure of these two forces to connect and prevent Aguinaldo from getting up to the mountains, is the only unsatisfactory feature, and steps have been taken to remedy this.
Another proposition for a peace conference is the thing to expect now. If such a proposition is made by Aguinaldo, Gen. Otis will refuse to entertain it. He sent a message for Aguinaldo today to MacArthur. The contents of the message were not announced. MacArthur sent back word that it might take two or three days for him to deliver the message. Aguinaldo's present location is altogether a matter of speculation. Gen. Otis thinks he has fled to the mountains in the north, although he was at Tarlac Friday.
ONE-SIDED ENCOUNTERS.
MANILA, Nov. 13, 8:45 a.m.—[By Manila Cable.] Gen. Young is supposed to have reached San Nicholas, about thirty miles east of Dagupan, but his wagons are far behind. Col. Hayes has captured Aguinaldo's secretary, and Maj. Coleman is in Carrangian, with an escort of 175 bolomen, on his way to the province of Nueva Visaya. The son of Gen. Llaneras and his family are prisoners. The general barely escaped.
The correspondent of the Associated Press with Gen. Young telegraphs from San José that Aguinaldo did not escape to the north. He and his army, the correspondent adds, are surrounded. His last orders to the Filipino commander at San José were to hold San José and Carrangian at all costs.
The recent encounters were too one-sided to be called fights. The insurgents are mortally afraid of the Americans, however strong their position. They make but a brief and feeble resistance, and run when the terrible American yell reaches their ears, whereupon the Americans pursue them and slay many.
The moral effect of the news that 60,000 troops are on their way here has been unquestionably great. The in-surgers are suffering more from disease than from the Americans, owing to poor food, lack of medicines and filthy hospitals, with the result that there is great mortality among them.

Gen. Lawton has intercepted a telegram from an insurgent captain to a Filipino general reading: "How can you blame me for retreating when only twelve of my company were able to fight?"

CRUISER STRIKES A REEF OFF NORTHWEST LUZON.

She Had Been Patrolling the Coast.
Disaster Occurred a Week Ago—No Particulars Save That All Hands Escaped Safely from the Doomed Vessel—List of Her Officers.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]
MANILA, Nov. 14, 12:30 p.m.—[By Manila Cable.] The United States cruiser Charleston, which has been patrolling the northern coast of Luzon, was wrecked on a reef off the northwest coast Tuesday, November 7. All on board were saved.

The cruiser Charleston, which was built in San Francisco in 1888, had a displacement of 3730 tons; was 312 ft. 7 in. in length, 46 ft. 2 in. beam and 21 ft. 8 in. draught. She was of steel, having two propellers, one funnel and two masts with military tops. She had the following armament: Two 8-inch guns, six 6-inch guns, four 8-pounders, two 3-pounders, six 1-pounders, two machine guns and one light gun, with four torpedo tubes. She had a complement of 308 men.

TAKEN OFF IN BOATS.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
MANILA, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The crew of the United States cruiser Charleston, wrecked off the coast of Camiguin Island, November 7, was taken off in small boats and towed by launches to the Gulf of Lingayen, where the disaster was reported to the United States Navy. W. P. Hingman, the commander of the vessel, immediately started for Manila to report to Admiral Watson. He reached here this morning. He says he fears the cruiser is a total wreck.

ANOTHER VERSION.
[A. P. EARLY A. M. REPORT.]
MANILA, Nov. 14, 12:25 p.m.—The cruiser Charleston ran aground near Vigan on a hidden reef, with thirty-five fathoms of water on both sides. She worked her machinery for two days and nights in trying to get afloat, but a typhoon arising, the crew were compelled to take to their boats and make refuge on a small island five miles from the wreck. The crew, says Lieut. McDonald, a number of sailors put off in a small boat and reached the Callao, which brought them to Manila. The gunboat Helena has been dispatched to bring away the crew.
Lieut. McDonald describes the Charleston when he last saw her, as hard and fast aground with her bottom badly stove, and well out of water.

THE WRECKED CRUISER.
[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, November 13.—The Charleston has been in Asiatic waters since the summer of 1898. She was one of the first vessels to be sent to Manila after the destruction of the Spanish fleet by Admiral Dewey, the Navy Department utilizing her for the purpose of sending ammunition and other supplies to the Asiatic station. Just previous to her assignment to that duty, she had under her command a number of sailors, and belongs to that class which is commonly referred to as the new navy. Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Long, it was stated at his home that no messages had been received by him since the night of the disaster.
The following are the officers of the Charleston as given in the Navy Department's list of July 3, 1899: Surgeon Edward D. Wood, commanding; Lieutenant-Commander John A. Morris, Lieutenant-Commander Thomas B. Howard, Lieutenant-Commander William N. Little, Lieut. William Braunerreuther, Lieut. Louis S. Van Duzen, Lieutenants (junior grade) Lay H. Edwards, William B. Elmer, Waldo Evans; Ensigns Ivan C. W. Tengel, Albert W. Marshall and James B. Henry, Jr.; Naval Cadets Edward Constable, Charles Fisher, James S. Moran, James E. Mathews, Frank O. Branch and Charles B. Hatch; Surgeons Charles T. Hibbert, Assistant Surgeon Edward D. Wood, Passed Assistant Paymaster Zeba W. Reynolds, Captain of Marines Melville J. Layton, Boatswain Dominick Glynn, Gunner Joseph W. Wade and Acting Carpenter John H. Gill.

GEN. OTIS CABLES.
[A. P. DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The following dispatch from Gen. Otis was received at the War Department today: "MANILA, Nov. 13.—MacArthur's advance, Thirty-sixth Volunteers and cavalry troops, under Bell, entered Tarlac, 7:10 p.m. yesterday. Enemy fled, but by labor MacArthur succeeded in getting forward to Capas yesterday all artillery and Quartermaster's transportation, and will have command of Tarlac today, his advance pushing forward to save as much of railroad as possible, which enemy is trying to destroy on retreat."
"Many deserters from enemy, who passed into MacArthur's camp, thirty yesterday. Insurgents in that section reported to be short of provisions. Lawton pushing forward with great energy, his advance obliged to leave behind all transportation and depend, to great extent, upon country for subsistence."
"Hayes, Fourth Cavalry, in vicinity of Carrangian, has captured large amount insurgent property, and nearly half battalion of 400 bolomen transporting Aguinaldo's property north over mountains, together with his private secretary and seven officers."
"Young, Third Cavalry, and Batson's Macabebes scouts followed by battalion Twenty-second Infantry, leaving behind all transportation, pushed out on San José, Lupina, San Quintin and Mayug road, and scattered enemy stationed at these points, most of whom retired southwestward."
"Wessels, with squadron Third Cavalry, hastened forward to Mayug, where insurgents' supply depot was captured, securing several hundred thousand pounds of rice, 3500 pounds flour, 7500 pounds salt and other provisions, 1300 uniforms coats, new, many blankets and other articles of clothing, also number of insurgent prisoners and Filipino uniforms were captured at Subig. Thirty insurgents surrendered at Gen. MacArthur, receiving $20 each for a gun.

Maj. Marsh's battalion of the Thirty-third Regiment, which includes many old rough riders from the Southwest, attacked 400 Filipinos three miles from San Fabian on the Dagupan road on Friday. The Filipinos had been firing at the outposts. Maj. Marsh found them entrenched across the river. The trenches had been made after Gen. Wheaton's arrival. Maj. Marsh charged them, a portion of his battalion fording the stream and part crossing by the bridge.
When the Americans approached, the Filipinos, afraid to show their heads, poked their rifles above the trenches and fired blindly. Maj. Marsh's force pushed them for a mile. Fourteen dead Filipinos were left behind, including the lieutenant-colonel commanding on the field. Two Americans were wounded.
The insurgents have resumed their activity in the Cavite province, threatening an attack on Imus. Yesterday they attacked Calamba in the usual fashion. A nighty fusillade between the marines and the hundred insurgents who have again entrenched themselves on the lathums between Cavite and Novleta is plainly heard. On Saturday the Filipinos attempted to entrap the marines by landing a force from canoes behind them. The searchlight of the Philippine Commission favored a recommendation to embark and a few shots from the Monadnock and Petrel's guns stopped the game.

EXCLUSION OF THE CELESTIALS.
PHILIPPINE PROBLEM.
[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Whether Chinese exclusion should be applied to the Philippines is among the subjects engaging the attention of the Philippine Commission. Considerable evidence bearing on the matter has been collected, and besides presenting this testimony with their full report, it is expected that a recommendation will have considerable influence in shaping the course of this government and the action of Congress.
It is understood that two members of the commission, Messrs. Denby and Worcester, have expressed themselves as favorable to an application of the Chinese Exclusion Act to the Philippines. From the fact that Gen. Otis has issued an order for Chinese exclusion, it is assumed that his voice as a member of the commission also would be for Chinese exclusion in the Philippines.
The position of Admiral Dewey, however, is understood to be favorable to Chinese admission. While this personal view of the admiral has been expressed to friends, it is not known whether he would give it official expression in case all his colleagues on the commission favored a recommendation of exclusion. The attitude of President Schurman has not been made known, even in an informal way.
The exclusion question is involved to some extent in the inquiries which the United States is making now of other powers as to the maintenance of an open-door policy in China.

WHEN CUBANS ARE IN CONTROL.
THEY WILL GET FUNDS.
[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]
HAVANA, Nov. 13.—[By West Indian Cable.] Gen. Gomez writes to La Lucha that he has seen with great pleasure the announcement of a project to raise funds to meet his personal needs, but that such a proposition would not do him honor in the execution and he must beg leave to refuse the offer in advance.
"This is not a time," he declares, "for Cubans to occupy themselves with the private concerns of any individual. When they become absolute masters of the island, which will be a glorious consummation, there will be opportunity to attend to personal matters."

The insurgents have drained the resources of the provinces. The army has impressed a large share of the crops, and the people are miserably poor. Everywhere are elaborate trenches, built by the non-combatants working day and night. The Americans found big stores of rice at Tarlac, Subig and elsewhere, and several thousand new Filipino uniforms were captured at Subig. Thirty insurgents surrendered at Gen. MacArthur, receiving $20 each for a gun.
Maj. Marsh's battalion of the Thirty-third Regiment, which includes many old rough riders from the Southwest, attacked 400 Filipinos three miles from San Fabian on the Dagupan road on Friday. The Filipinos had been firing at the outposts. Maj. Marsh found them entrenched across the river. The trenches had been made after Gen. Wheaton's arrival. Maj. Marsh charged them, a portion of his battalion fording the stream and part crossing by the bridge.

[SOUTH AFRICA.]
LONDON, Nov. 14, 4:50 a.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The paucity of news from the front still leaves the chief interest centered in the arrival of reinforcements. Estimates dispatched say that hellegraph communication has been established with Ladysmith, but so far no news has been received, the latest date being November 6, which shows that the occupants of Ladysmith had no news of the outside world since Gen. French reached Pietermaritzburg, and that they were puzzled at the inactivity of the Boers. Everyone was confident and cheerful, but all were suffering the inconvenience of the siege, bread selling at 3s per loaf.

Col. Baden-Powell's dashing sorties at Mafeking encourage the hope that the British garrisons along the western border are able to hold out. Cecil Rhodes is employing 8000 men, white and black, at Kimberley in road-making, as a remedy for destitution.
According to a dispatch from De Aar, the Boers at Kimberley have got the exact range of the mines, and are constantly throwing shells at the dynamite huts. Several of the latter have been blown up, and the damage done to the mines already amounts to many hundreds of pounds.
Among the stories from Brussels is one that Gen. Joubert and Sir George White have been endeavoring to negotiate for the capitulation of Ladysmith, but have failed to come to terms.
Lord Salisbury and Lord Wolseley were guests of the Queen at Windsor Castle last night.
Mrs. Rudyard Kipling has donated £20 and some books to the fund for fitting out the hospital ship Maine.

The stories of Father Matthews, captured from Lorenzo Marquez regarding the surrender at Nicholson's Neck, are too vague to be very convincing, but in military circles it is considered unpleasant reading, and it is believed possible to learn the facts until the officer concerned has been court-martialed.
The report that the British cruiser Magicienne had fired on the French steamer Cordoba raised the doubtful point whether Great Britain has yet actually declared all arriving transports and inform them of the latest orders respecting their destinations, which are to be kept secret.

BATCH OF DISPATCHES.
[A. P. DAY REPORT.]
LONDON, Nov. 13.—The War Office this morning published the following dispatch, received from Gen. Buller: "CAPE TOWN, Sunday night, Nov. 12.—The following reports have been received from Col. Baden-Powell: "MAPEKING, Monday, Oct. 30.—All well here. Enemy apparently shy of attacking. Only one shot fired. Are today destroying railroad twelve miles north with dynamite. Shelling continues, doing very little harm."
Tuesday, Oct. 31.—Enemy attempted assault today on Cannon kopje and southeast corner of town. Attacked most bravely, with a well-standng hot shot fired by the British. South African police under Walford. Enemy lost heavily. Our casualties five killed and five wounded. Killed: Hon. H. D. Marshall. Fourth Bedfordshire; C. A. Pettich. Third King's Rifles; a sergeant-major and two troopers. Wounded: Five non-commissioned troopers, all British. South African police."
The War Office has also made public the following dispatch from Gen. Buller: "CAPE TOWN, Sunday, Nov. 12.—The following is from Nicholson: "MAPEKING, Wednesday, Oct. 25.—All well here. Enemy still shelling us. We made successful attack on his advance trenches last night, getting in with bayonet. Our loss six men, Protectorate Regiment, killed; nine men, including Capt. F. W. Clarence, Third Royal Fusiliers, and Lieut. Swinton, wounded. Enemy's loss unknown, but considerable. Enemy have vacated Signal Hill and lagged two miles northeast of town."
The Colonial Office today gave out the following extract from a telegram received from the Governor of Natal: "Lieut. Letbridge of the Rifle Brigade, who was dangerously wounded November 7 at Ladysmith; Lieut. Nesbit of the Gloucestershire Regiment, a wounded prisoner at Pretoria, are reported by a refugee to be doing well."

FATHER MATTHEWS SAYS THE BOERS DID NOT APPEAR TO GREAT ADVANTAGE IN THE BATTLE OF NICHOLSON'S NECK—THE THROWING OF LYDITE SHELLS RESUMED AT LADYSMITH.

Father Matthews says the Boers did not appear to great advantage in the battle of Nicholson's Neck. The throwing of Lydite shells resumed at Ladysmith.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Nov. 14, 4 a.m. [Exclusive Dispatch.] A heated dispatch, referring to the earlier arrivals of troops in South Africa, says: "Regiment after regiment lands and vanishes up the country. The men do not know their destination, and the officers have the vaguest idea where they are going. The other night the naval brigade disappeared as if it had never existed."

The latest news from Mafeking relates to events of a fortnight ago. There is no evidence that Russia and Japan are on the eve of war, and work on Japanese war vessels now building in English shipyards may have been expedited, but this does not warrant the assumption that a naval war with Russia is openly courted. It is stated that the Japanese government, which has always placed large deposits in some of the leading British banks, has been among the applicants for the six months' treasury bonds issued last week, and that one of the largest blocks of these securities was allotted to Japanese representatives. This is taken to imply that Japan is continuing to increase its war chest.

NEW YORK'S HORSE SHOW.

SOCIETY TURNS OUT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The fifteenth annual horse show began in Madison Square Garden today, with a good attendance. The first two hours of the day were given over to the exercising of horses, and at 11 o'clock the first judging was done, when fifty-one hunters and jumpers of class 98 were inspected. The exercising brought out practically all of the stars in the show, and the boxes were filled with representatives of fashionable society, who were on hand to get first glimpses of the horses.

Among the entries that attracted favorable attention were H. C. Hoskier's team, Lord Brilliant, and Lieut. Wright; Richard Croker's Junah; Gen. Benjamin's son, a pair of trotters, West and B. C., entered by P. C. Knox of Pittsburgh.

When the bugle sounded at 9 o'clock about twenty horses were brought into the ring for exercising. Frederick Bronson and Col. Lawrence Kip are the Ring Commodore of the show, and William C. Whitney and George Peabody Wetmore for this evening.

DEWEY MEETS CROKER.

"RULER OF NEW YORK" SHAKES WITH THE ADMIRAL.

Enthusiasts Respect the Request to Be Let Alone and the Bridal Couple are Allowed to Walk Down Fifth Avenue Unmolested—Many Cards but No Visitors at the Hotel.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.] NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Admiral Dewey and his wife breakfasted today at 9:30 o'clock in their apartments at the Waldorf-Astoria, and two hours later left the hotel for a walk. In compliance with the request made by the admiral Saturday night, the enthusiasts who recognized him on Fifth avenue contented themselves with saluting and passing on. The admiral returned all salutes by raising his hat, and the party topped out to dismount from his wagon, but the admiral stopped him and reached up to shake hands. He then introduced the admiral to the party, and they drove away, and the admiral and his bride continued their walk.

The couple walked up Fifth avenue to the plaza and through Central Park to Sixty-fourth street. At that point they were confronted by a group of nursemaids with their charges, and turned back, leaving the park by the Sixth-avenue entrance. On their way back, they were met by Richard Croker, who was driving, and he raised his hat and pulled to the curb when he recognized the admiral. The admiral, however, did not stop, but the admiral's son, who was in the car, did.

Admiral and Mrs. Dewey returned to the hotel about 1:30 o'clock. The admiral's son, who was in the car, did not return with them.

FATAL QUARREL OVER MONEY.

SON MURDERS FATHER.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.] NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—George J. Schan, 50 years old, an employee in the Supreme Court, was shot and killed at his home today by his son, George W. Schan, a dentist. The wife of the murdered man and the mother of the young Schan, died a year and a half ago, leaving, it is said, considerable property to be divided between her husband and two sons. One son is now in Manila, a member of the Fourth United States Infantry. The father has since remarried, and refused, it is said, to probate the will of his dead wife. His son, who had been at the time of the second marriage. They continually demanded that the property left by their mother be divided, and in lieu of that, called upon the father for money, which was refused.

The son George, it is said, declared that he would never allow his stepmother to get any of his property. He went to the house of his father early this morning, and found him in bed. His stepmother was in an adjoining room. The son, however, demanded money. The father became enraged, and raised himself from the bed in a menacing manner, when the young man drew a revolver and fired two shots. The muzzle of the revolver was so near Schan that the powder burned his face. The elder Schan fell back on the bed and expired immediately. The son placed the revolver on the bed and calmly awaited his arrest.

THE SURRENDER OF PARADES.

OFFICIAL INFORMATION.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.] WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Both the State and Navy departments have received reports concerning the surrender of Parades at Puerto Cabello, Venezuela, yesterday. The State department dispatch is from Minister Loomis at Caracas, and is as follows: "After eight hours' fighting, Castro's army took Puerto Cabello this morning. Killed and wounded aggregate 300. The hospital corps from foreign cruisers attended the wounded. Local facilities inadequate. Castro holds every port and place of consequence in Venezuela."

The Navy Department's report comes from Commander Hemphill of the Detroit, which is now at Puerto Cabello. It is dated last night at 9:30 o'clock, and reads as follows: "Severe fighting since Saturday morning. About 200 killed on both sides. Parades surrendered his final position to Castro's forces Sunday morning."

CLOSING CHAPTER ON SAMOA.

CHIEF JUSTICE SUBSCRIBES.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.] WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Judge Chambers, Chief Justice of Samoa, who is now in this country on leave of absence, called at the State Department today and had a long conference with Secretary Hay respecting Samoan affairs, and particularly the condition of the island of Upolu, which is to become the exclusive property of the United States upon the ratification of the recently arranged division of the island. The Chief Justice made a most favorable report upon the island, which has a native population of about 7000 persons, for whom some form of government is being devised. It probably will be patterned after that at Guam, where the navy maintains a naval governor.

The closing chapters of the history of the administration of Samoa under the Berlin treaty are to be set out in a report which Judge Chambers has prepared and will submit to the Secretary of State tomorrow.

BOY CONFESSES TO MURDER.

KILLED A WOMAN.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.] STAMFORD (Conn.), Nov. 13.—The inquest into the murder of Mrs. Sarah P. King is in progress today. Just before the opening of the proceedings it was learned that Charles Cross, the seventeen-year-old chore boy who is under arrest on suspicion, had made a confession.

According to Cross's statement, after Mrs. King had retired he entered her room and undertook to overpower her. She resisted forcibly, whereupon he hurled her to the floor and struck her on the head with a heavy iron. She became unconscious, and he lifted her body to the bed, immediately leaving the house to notify neighbors that the woman had been murdered.

To Investigate the McLeod Bill.

LANSING (Mich.), Nov. 13.—A grand jury has been called by Judge Pierson to investigate, it is alleged, matters in connection with the passage of the McLeod Bill by the Legislature last winter. The McLeod Bill gave the city of Detroit authority to purchase and operate its street railways, and was rushed through the Legislature and signed by Gov. Pingree, notwithstanding a strong protest made by many leading citizens of Detroit. The bill was afterwards declared unconstitutional by the State Supreme Court.

Estate Nearly All Distributed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 13.—A Battle, Mont. special to the Journal says that Andrew J. Davis, Jr., nephew of the dead millionaire, declares the new Chicago will brought forward by Mary G. Wilson is too late as the estate, after being in litigation ten years, is nearly all distributed, only the Boston end remaining undistributed.

Fatal Fight on a Farm.

KOKOMO (Ind.), Nov. 13.—In a fight between Orin Springer and Fred Smith and William Busby today, Springer was instantly killed, and Busby was wounded in the shoulder. Springer and Smith were hunting, and were ordered off Busby's farm. There is much indignation, and the Sheriff is apprehensive of trouble.

Union Workmen Ordered Out.

BUFFALO (N. Y.), Nov. 13.—In order to force a settlement in the dispute between the men engaged in construction work and their employers, regarding wages, the Trades and Labor Council has ordered out all union men working on buildings in this city, in which case the union men are entirely disarmed. It is said that 4000 men are affected.

A SEVERE COLD.

"A very simple measure is the very beginning of a cold," says the Baltimore (O.) News, "is to take a hot bath until the perspiration is established, and then wrap the body in two or three warm dry blankets in a warm room, so that there will be free perspiration for an hour. The body should then be rubbed and dried, and the individual should go to bed without any exposure, and remain there from twelve to thirty-six hours, or until the symptoms of the cold have entirely disappeared." If you should venture out before the end of thirty-six hours you would be almost certain to contract a severe cold.

CHASTISED THE CANNIBALS.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 13.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The British ship, the Volca, from the German Cameroons, West Africa, which arrived here today, reports that a German punitive expedition chastised a tribe of rebellious cannibals, who had besieged several trading stations at and near Kribi. The Germans chased the natives into the bush, killing 200.

It was reported, according to the captain of the Volca, that a number of the slain were decapitated, their heads stuck next Monday in the walls to strike terror to the inhabitants.

TWO HUNDRED SLAIN.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.] LIVERPOOL, Nov. 13.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The British ship, the Volca, from the German Cameroons, West Africa, which arrived here today, reports that a German punitive expedition chastised a tribe of rebellious cannibals, who had besieged several trading stations at and near Kribi. The Germans chased the natives into the bush, killing 200.

It was reported, according to the captain of the Volca, that a number of the slain were decapitated, their heads stuck next Monday in the walls to strike terror to the inhabitants.

Claims on Carter's Contracts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The case of the Atlantic Contracting Company against the government for the recovery of sums alleged to be due on contracts entered into with them by former Capt. O'Brien M. Carter for improvements to the Savannah, Ga., harbor, now before the United States Court of Claims, was again postponed today.

BOERS LOST THE OPPORTUNITY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The simultaneous attacks on Ladysmith, Mafeking and Kimberley, which were opened Thursday, manifest full recognition by the Boers of the fact that they were losing their chances of a successful onslaught on any of the three British strongholds. Gen. Joubert's chances of reaching Pietermaritzburg can be said to have vanished. This is already reported to be admitted by Col. Schiel, the German officer commanding the Boer artillery, who is supposed to have been largely the author of the Boer plan of campaign, and who, in an interview, is alleged to have said: "The Boer intention was to have captured Pietermaritzburg and then to dictate terms, but all hope of accomplishing this must now be abandoned."

There is no doubt that from the British point of view, the general situation in Natal is rapidly improving. Nearly eight thousand troops reached Ladysmith after the Boer attack on the 10th, and making a general attack on Ladysmith by Gen. Joubert very hazardous.

As the cavalry and artillery belonging to Gen. Methuen's division will not have arrived by then, the advance from Estcourt may be delayed. It is doubtful if it is possible to communicate with the beleaguered town at the earliest possible moment.

Gen. Methuen, it is believed, may decide to replace the cavalry and artillery by the native Ulster forces and the naval guns, in which case, it is claimed, it ought to be possible to occupy the town of Ladysmith, and at a meeting held in the rooms of the Board of Trade, arrangements for subscription lists in behalf of the war and the Boer army were perfected. Only Chicagoans born in British possessions will be invited to contribute to the fund, the money will be sent to the Mansion House fund, London.

ADVANCE ON HERAT.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The Times publishes a communication this morning from the Petersburg correspondent, who discusses the recent rumors of a Russian advance toward Herat. The correspondent thinks that, although these rumors are not to be taken too seriously, there can be no doubt that the Russian military authorities are preparing for an advance to Herat in certain contingencies, such as the declaration of the Amir of Afghanistan, which would lead to disturbances.

ARRIVALS OF TROOPSHIPS.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—A dispatch from Cape Town to the War Office, dated November 6, by way of Estcourt, Nov. 13, confirms the idea that the temporary cessation of the Boer bombardment was due to Gen. Joubert awaiting the arrivals of the troops. The Boers consider their success was due to the justness of their cause. They have been guilty of abusing the Red Cross flag. News from the south is scanty. A number of guns are in position all around us. It was difficult at first to locate them, as they use smokeless explosives, and a balloon managed to discover all the positions.

All the news from Kimberley and Mafeking continues to point to the ability of those places to hold out until the plans of relief now maturing can be consummated.

Capt. H. Douglas Henry Marshall, reported killed in the dispatches received today from Col. Baden-Powell at Mafeking, under date of October 31, was a third son of the Earl of Romney. Capt. A. E. Fitchell, also named in the same dispatch as among the killed, had seen considerable service in the Boer war.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Deputy Sheriff W. J. Ward, who was assaulted by convict Ross on the Santa Rosa Saturday afternoon, is still unconscious, and doctors say he will succumb. Sheriff Jennings and the wife and daughter of Ward are en route here, and will arrive in the morning. The injured man is an Odd Fellow, and a Woodman of the World. Ross is now manacled in San Quentin.

IMPORTANT MINING DECISION.

POPULAR AT RANDSBURG.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RANDBURG, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Giant powder is being put off from the adjacent hills and Randsburg rejoices. The Supreme Court has affirmed Judge Van Dyke's decision giving the Yellow Aster (Rand) Mining Company full and undisturbed possession of the Rand mines. This decision came this afternoon and immediately their flag was hoisted and people were glad all over the camp. This removes the last obstacle, and the original locators, Singleton, Moores and Burcham, are now free from distressing and hampering lawsuits.

For five years they have labored at a disadvantage, always with a lawsuit on their hands, and not knowing what the outcome might be. Now it will be clear sailing, and new work will be pushed forward, others inaugurated, and a new impetus will be given to mining here. This is the most important event in the history of mining in Southern California. General Manager Singleton and Secretary Burcham left for Los Angeles tonight.

"DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED."

GIRL KILLS HER MOTHER.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

MODESTO, Nov. 13.—Mrs. Emma McCoy, wife of Frank McCoy, died this morning from the effects of a shot fired by her thirteen-year-old daughter, late yesterday afternoon. The girl pointed a parlor rifle at her mother's head and said she was going to shoot, and the bullet went into the brain behind the left ear, ranging upward. The mother became unconscious and her brains oozed out of the wound. Medical skill was called, but to no purpose. The rifle was believed to be unloaded, as the fifteen-year-old son had told his sister that he had taken out the cartridges, but the younger brother had replaced it to shoot at a pigeon, and left the cartridge in the weapon without telling them.

The family consists of a father, who is a laboring man, and six children, ranging from 14 months to 15 years. They are in straitened circumstances. The family has resided here about three weeks, having come from Southville, Tuolumne county, but their former home was at Castroville, where all of the children were born. The father had left the family but half an hour before the shooting, and he had been working on a ranch, where he is working on a plow team.

MRS. DE BLANCO'S COMMISSIONS.

WILL STUDY FINANCES.

[A. P. EARLY A. M. REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—The Chronicle says:

"Mrs. Antonio Zaldivar de Blanco, who is here on a mission of considerable importance to the governments of Guatemala and Nicaragua, has several important commissions to fulfill. Among other things she will make a study of financial conditions in Mexico and the financial methods of the Mexican government, to enable President Estrada Cabrera to reorganize the treasury system of Guatemala on a sounder basis after the financial readjustment now in progress. 'Incidentally she has been commissioned to make some extensive purchases of uniforms for the troops of Guatemala. She has been asked by President Zelaya of Nicaragua to study the military ambulance systems of the several countries she will visit here present. She has also purchased a full equipment of modern military ambulances for shipment to Nicaragua."

TWO RAILROADS' BIG EARNINGS.

ESPEE AND SEEPPE.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—According to a statement just issued, the gross earnings of the Southern Pacific company for July, August and September last aggregated $16,254,534, an increase of $2,626,169 over the same period of 1898. The operating expenses were $7,788,628, an increase of $1,427,394. The net earnings were $8,465,906, an increase of $1,198,575 over the same period of last year.

During July and August last the Central Pacific's gross earnings aggregated $3,456,616, an increase of $734,446 over the same period of last year. Operating expenses were $1,862,134, or an increase of $246,049. The net earnings amounted to $1,594,476, an increase of $488,419 over the same two months of last year.

PASSENGER TRAIN DITCHED.

FIREMAN INJURED.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

JEROME (Ariz.), Nov. 13.—The incoming passenger train of the United Verde and Pacific Railroad was ditched eight miles north of here. The engine and two flat cars rolled from bridge No. 15, and crushed the fireman, David Rose, beneath the engine. The other trainmen and the passengers escaped uninjured. The road has the greatest curves and grades of any road in the United States. This is the first accident that has ever happened on this road during its five years' operation.

CHURCH DESTROYED BY FIRE.

EVERYTHING LOST.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

MODESTO, Nov. 13.—The Baptist Church at Ceres, five miles south of Modesto, was totally destroyed by fire last evening, a short time before the time for services. A fire had been lighted in the furnace and the janitor had gone away. Nothing was saved. The loss was $7000, with no insurance. The edifice was the only place of worship in Ceres.

MASKED ROBBERS AT OAKLAND.

SALOON-KEEPER WOUNDED.

[A. P. EARLY A. M. REPORT.]

OAKLAND, Nov. 13.—John Thomas, a saloon-keeper at Pacific and Campbell streets, was shot in the head and shoulder by two masked men, who entered his place of business late last night. His wounds are believed to be fatal. The men immediately fled and their identity is unknown. It is supposed that they were robbers, but that they became alarmed after firing the shots.

Kootenai Lumber Interests United.

ROSSLAND (B. C.), Nov. 13.—Efforts

have been made for several months to unite all lumber interests in that part of Kootenai district known as Rossland. It is now announced that this plan of consolidation has been carried through to successful culmination, and that in the development of this scheme all lumber mills in the boundary country, as well as all valuable timber sites included in the area of that region, have been secured by G. O. Buchanan. It is stated that Buchanan will endeavor to control the timber industry in that part of Kootenai. The lumber interests which he has acquired are said to be valued at $1,000,000.

Convention on Flood Waters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—The

first convention of the California State Association for the Storage of Flood Waters will be called to order at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning in the Palace Hotel. At least 400 delegates are expected to be present. The purpose of the association is to enlist the organized cooperation of the people of the State in the formulation and execution of a successful plan for impounding and distributing the flood waters of California for use in developing the commercial, manufacturing, agricultural and mining resources of the State.

The Case Against Welburn.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—The case of the government against Internal Revenue Collector Welburn was called in the United States District Court today. United States Attorney George W. Colver, who is prosecuting the case, announced that W. L. Zoller, one of the chief witnesses for the prosecution, was absent in Central America, he being employed as purser on the steamer Acadia. There is thereupon asked for a postponement until January 2. An offer of the defense to agree to the reading of the previous testimony of Zoller was agreed to, and the date of the trial will be set tomorrow, probably for some day next week.

Bedrock in Low Rates.

SEATTLE, Nov. 13.—Another cut

of $2 in the rate from Seattle to Chicago made by brokers today, making the second-class fare $30, seems to have reached the bedrock in the demoralization that has existed among the western transportation lines. "There is no more business to justify further cutting, and it would, therefore, seem that the end must be reached in three or four days, and the tariff be restored to its former level."

Fire at Crescent City.

CRESCENT CITY, Nov. 13.—A fire

originating in a building on the corner of Second and I streets, in this place, has caused a loss of about $10,000. The principal structures burned were the store and residence of Mrs. Stelzer, the drug store of Mrs. Z. A. Cheneau, the variety store of H. S. Hughes and the jewelry store of T. Eusaino.

Conspirators from Wardner.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Ten

men convicted of conspiracy and interfering with the United States mails at Wardner, Idaho, and sentenced to twenty-two months' imprisonment at San Quentin and a fine of $1000 each, arrived here in custody of officers late tonight. Their cases have been appealed and they are hopeful of the result.

Alleged Firebug Arrested.

STOCKTON, Nov. 13.—Jack Breen,

at present under sentence for burglary, was today found guilty of arson for having set the Farmers' Union warehouses on fire two years ago. It is said that Breen had an accomplice, or perhaps a superior in the work, and further prosecutions are promised.

One of the Dover's Crew.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 13.—The crew

of the river steamer San Jacinto report having found the body of a man floating in the stream opposite the mouth of the Feather River. The body is supposed to be that of one of the Dover's crew, drowned about three weeks ago.

Passed Before Miles.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Gen.

Nelson A. Miles today reviewed the soldiers stationed at the Presidio. Nearly eight thousand men passed in review. The soldiers made an excellent appearance, and Gen. Miles expressed himself as highly pleased.

Bankruptcy Case Dismissed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—United States Circuit Judge Morrow today dismissed the bill in the case of the Sorsos Fruit Company vs. C. B. Bills, trustee of the estate of E. B. Howard, in bankruptcy, for want of jurisdiction.

"Dutch" Henry Hart Arrested.

COVLETO, Nov. 13.—"Dutch" Henry

Hart, suspected of implication in the recent saloon hold up at Usal, was arrested today by a Deputy Sheriff at Rockport. The prisoner protests his innocence.

Burglar Gets Ten Years.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 13.—Frank

Smith, who was convicted of burglarizing the residence of Joseph N. Blair of this city, was today sentenced to serve ten years' imprisonment at Folsom.

COMBINE OF SHIPYARDS.

GIGANTIC SCHEME SEEMS TO BE

YET IN EMBRYO.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]

Seligman Says the Builders are Too Busy to Care About Consolidation. Huntington Would Enter the Trust, but Says the Government Should Own His Newport News Property.

[A. P. EARLY A. M. REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Concerning the projected combination of leading shipbuilding concerns, outlined in a dispatch from San Francisco, Jefferson Seligman says:

"The subject of a combination of leading shipyards of the United States is as yet in embryo. It has been talked of, but it is too soon to speak about it; it is all in the air. The shipyards are all doing a good business, and the Cramps, in which we have a large interest, are particularly busy just now. There are perhaps eight or ten leading shipyards in the country and they are getting big demands from foreign navies to build their ships. The work our ships did at Santiago and Manila and their great endurance have attracted the attention of foreign powers. The Cramps especially have orders from Japan and Russia."

The shipyards are making so much money in the country and they are not care to enter into a combination. There is no other firm associated with us in the matter. We cannot say anything as to the shipyard mentioned in the dispatch beyond what I have said about the Cramps. The year, however, is drawing to a close, and nothing has been done at present. The statement that the consolidated value of the shipyards mentioned in the dispatch exceeds $20,000,000 is correct."

The San Francisco dispatch was shown to Collis P. Huntington last night, and then said: "I would dispose of it, however, and should not ask that price, but I should want to get what I could. The shipyard at Newport News, Va., is mine, and is not mortgaged. 'Huntington went on to start a shipyard plant in the best location in the world, and I have succeeded in my purpose. It is right in the gateway of the sea. There is never any ice in winter, and it is never so cold but you can hammer metal out of doors. Ships can be kept at anchor the best and as cheap as anywhere. I would put my shipyard into the combination if I got my price, and also take some stock in the United States government should have my yard. One reason why I do not want to part with it is that I am experimenting with laboring today. I have set up a cotton mill to give some light work to the women and children of the men employed in the yard, which I know would be welcomed by the government."

IT HAS NO CRAMPS.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—The William Cramp & Son Ship and Engine Building Company has not entered into the proposed combination of shipbuilding concerns, and will remain independent. The company said today that, while there had been some talk of a union of certain firms, the Cramps' yard was not concerned in the deal, and no option had been given.

CONTEST FOR PLANT'S WEALTH.

SEVERAL MILLIONS INVOLVED.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Tribune tomorrow will say: "The contest for the will of Henry B. Plant, the steamship, railroad and hotel owner, who died in Connecticut June 24 last, leaving an estate of several million dollars, is likely to be begun by the widow, who was the second wife of Mr. Plant, and who lives here. Mrs. Plant was not in the city yesterday, and it was not possible to learn whether the papers have been drawn up. By the terms of the will, Mrs. Plant received an allowance of $30,000 a year. Her friends assert that she is not satisfied with this. A few days before Mr. Plant died he got up from a sick bed and hurried off to New Haven, where he made his will. In Connecticut the law with reference to entailing estates makes it possible to tie up property for several generations. This act of Mr. Plant was so unusual that it attracted attention at the time, and it was with suspicion that he had acted while his mind was partially unbalanced. When Dr. Durran, the family physician was seen, last night he said: 'Up to the present time there have been no steps taken by Mrs. Plant to upset the will, and it is my belief that none will be taken.'"

EIGHTEEN PERSONS DROWNED.

STEAMER BELGUE LOST.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]

LONDON, Nov. 13.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Friday night the Belgian steamer Belgue, from Antwerp for Casquet rocks, near the Island of Alderney, the one of the trade routes which was on the March befall the London and Southwestern Railway Company's passenger steamer Stella.

The night was stormy. A boat was launched with sixteen men, but five of these died of exhaustion, and three others were drowned in the endeavor of the ship St. Kilda to rescue them. Eighteen persons, including the captain, out of a total crew of twenty-six, are believed to have been drowned.

CAPTURE OF PUERTO CABELLO.

NEWS UNCONFIRMED.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: "Acting Secretary of the Navy Allen says tonight he had received no official confirmation of the report of the bombardment and capture of Puerto Cabello, Venezuela. Commander Hemphill of the Detroit, in a recent dispatch to Mr. Allen, announced that formal notification of the proposed bombardment had been given. It is apparent that the report of the bombardment and capture of Puerto Cabello, Venezuela, is not confirmed. No doubt is expressed, however, in view of the notice given by Gen. Castro that American citizens and German subjects under the protection of the United States moved with their movable property from the scene of military operations."

"Provided the principles of international law are observed, as Gen. Castro apparently has done by giving notice of his intention to bombard, his government, when it is firmly installed, cannot be held liable, officials as a rule, to claims for property injuries."

OVERSTREET'S SUDDEN DEATH.

VISITING HIS PARENTS.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

GUTHRIE (Okla.), Nov. 13.—S. L. Overstreet, United States District Attorney for Oklahoma, died suddenly morning on a Santa Fe passenger train shortly before reaching Chicago. Overstreet was on his way to Franklin, Ind., to attend a family reunion to celebrate the golden wedding of his parents.

COMPLAINED OF PAINS.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—S. L. Overstreet, United States District Attorney for Oklahoma, who was found dead in the sleeper of the Atchison, Topoka and Santa Fe train near Joliet, Ill., this morning, was en route from Guthrie to Chicago. According to the Pullman conductor, Overstreet complained considerably of pains in his stomach, and retired early to the berth. About 10 o'clock this morning, shortly before the train arrived at Joliet, the porter of the Pullman car went to Overstreet's berth to arouse him; they found him dead. Overstreet was traveling alone.

CHICAGO RIOT CASES BEGUN.

PATROLMEN'S TESTIMONY.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The trial of what are known as the "riot cases" began before Judge Kohlsaat in the Federal Court today. These are the cases in which various railway companies ask for judgments against the city for damages to their property suffered during the railroad strike in 1894, on account of the alleged failure of the police authorities to furnish adequate protection. One of the cases, a minor case, has been taken to the Supreme Court of the State by the city on the plea that the State statute, holding the city liable for damages of this character, is unconstitutional. The Supreme Court, however, held the statute constitutional, and decided the city must pay. The present cases accordingly will turn simply on questions of fact, the city trying to show the companies have not suffered as much damage as they claim. The aggregate of these claims is nearly $5,000,000, and in the one tried, brought by the Pennsylvania company, the amount claimed is $200,000. Chief of Police Kiple issued an order to all members of the police force who were on active service at the time of the strike, to call the controller's office yesterday and give their testimony. Almost two hundred patrolmen responded and turned in their testimony.

FIGHTING IN COLOMBIA.

INSURGENTS DEFEATED.

[A. P. EARLY A. M. REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—A dispatch to the Herald from Panama says that official advices from Buenaventura state that there have been several engagements in the interior departments between the government and revolutionary forces, in which the insurgents were defeated. Battles were fought in Lerida and To-calima. It is reported that in the latter place Gen. Figueredo was killed and several prisoners taken. In Piedra Cuesta and Bucaramanga Gens. Ramirez, Melendez and Vicente Villamizar, leading the government troops, are defeated. The insurgents under Gens. Haradilla and Frazer. The latter was killed in action. Gov. Matias Duran, who is now both military and civil chief of Panama, has received official dispatches from Gen. Santos, Minister of War, at Bogota, recognizing his military services under the present circumstances, and approving all the measures taken by the local government under the governor's direction.

ENGLISH-GERMAN RELATIONS.

NEWSPAPER COMMENTS.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

LONDON, Nov. 13.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The afternoon papers, commenting on Emperor William's approaching visit to England and the improved relations between Germany and Great Britain, voice the general opinion here saying: "The latter is in a great part due to the vast change in the relations between the United States and Great Britain which preceded it, and from which Germany has drawn obvious deductions that legitimate colonial ambitions must be fulfilled in the face of the hostility of the two English-speaking peoples."

According to the St. James Gazette, the establishment of good relations between London and Washington, it became necessary for Germany to establish friendly terms with both. There has been, the paper proceeds, no unqualified promises of future armed support, but the three countries have decided to live on civil terms for business reasons.

POSSE SENT AFTER INDIANS.

SETTLERS ALARMED.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

DENVER, Nov. 13.—Game Warden Lee is organizing a posse here to expel from Colorado several hundred Indians, who are encamped at the headwaters of Yellow Creek, between Grand and August creeks, and are engaged in killing deer. The settlers are alarmed lest the Indians shall seek to avenge the killing of several Indians by Game Warden Wilcox and a posse three years ago, of good relations between London and Washington, it became necessary for Germany to establish friendly terms with both. There has been, the paper proceeds, no unqualified promises of future armed support, but the three countries have decided to live on civil terms for business reasons.

SENATOR THURSTON TO MARRY.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

OMAHA, Nov. 13.—Confirmation was made at the Thurston residence, in this city, today of the report that Senator John M. Thurston was to marry Miss Lola Pearson of Washington. The wedding will occur in Washington this week, and the Senator and his bride will take a two-week wedding trip before returning to Washington for the session of Congress. He is expected to be returned to the United States, and its recommitment to the United States Senate for ratification.

SHOOK SURROUNDING COUNTRY.

MAGAZINE BLOWN UP.

[A. P. NIGHT REPORT.]

TIFFIN (O.), Nov. 13.—A magazine used by the Bradford nitroglycerine factory to store the product of their factory, located two and a half miles east of Gibsonburg, exploded this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The shock was heard at towns within a radius of forty miles, and the effects of the explosion in the immediate neighborhood were terrific. The magazine is located in the woods, a quarter of a mile from any dwelling, and this alone prevented terrible loss of life. Benjamin Card, driver of a stock wagon, has brought a load of 720 quarts of nitroglycerine from the factory at Bradford, and was unloading it when the explosion took place. Just how it happened will never be learned. Card and the two horses driven by him received the full effect of the explosion. He was blown to atoms, only a few shreds of his body were found, and pieces of horseflesh were found miles away. It is supposed that he had a companion, but this is not positively known. The explosion made a hole seven feet deep in the solid rock, and trees in the vicinity were torn to splinters. The people within a mile of the place were knocked flat, and many were thrown from the walls, dishes were thrown out of cupboards, windows shattered and houses moved from their foundations. All the windows in Gibsonburg were broken. There were about fifteen hundred quarts of glycerine in the wagon, and the explosion was heard lived in Bradford, O., and left a family. The shock was distinctly felt here.

RECESS OF SUPREME COURT.

TWO CASES ADVANCED.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Chief Justice Fuller of the United States Supreme Court, announced that the court would take a recess for a fortnight beginning next Monday. The Supreme Court today advanced the case of Knowlton vs. Moore to be held with the case of High vs. Coyne, on December 4 next. Both cases involve the constitutionality of the inheritance tax law. The Knowlton case originated in Brooklyn, and the High case in Chicago.

Something About Frey's Resigning.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 13.—A dispatch to the Journal from Topeka, Kan., says that officials of the Santa Fe, who are in a position to know, have nothing to say about the reported resignation of General Manager Frey. Commenting upon the foregoing dispatch, the Journal tomorrow will say: "A prominent railroad official of Kansas City said yesterday that he had known for some time that the resignation of Mr. Frey had been submitted. He also observed that Mr. Frey had a big job in sight."

Released to Be Rich.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.]

LONDON, Nov. 13.—George Cooper, who in 1892 was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment, after a sensational trial for having killed his wife at Douglas, Isle of Man, has just been released. He finds himself the inheritor of a fortune estimated at nearly £1,000,000. Both his father and father-in-law, who were always convinced of his innocence, and that the death of his wife was accidental, died during his imprisonment, leaving him large properties.

RAILROADS ANSWER.

DISCRIMINATION IN FREIGHT RATES IS THE CHARGE.

Middle Western Business Men Claim They are Practically Excluded from Pacific Coast Territory by Unjust Differences in Transportation Charges—Testimony Introduced.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.] ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13.—The hearing of the complaint of the St. Louis Traffic Bureau against Pacific Coast railroads and their connections, which are charged with discriminating against St. Louis in the matter of freight rates, began today before the Interstate Commerce Commission, sitting in the Federal Court building. While the name of the St. Louis Business Men's League appears on the record as the complainant, it has merely permitted the use of its name, since the traffic bureau, which is really prosecuting the case, is not incorporated.

The greater part of the day was taken up with the testimony of A. J. Van Landingham, commissioner of the St. Louis Traffic Bureau.

All the day he sat under a searching cross-examination, displaying a remarkable technical knowledge of transportation matters and presenting the claims of St. Louis jobbers and manufacturers in the best possible light. Thirty or thirty-five witnesses remain to be examined, and it is not improbable that the entire week will be consumed in the investigation.

There were various interpleaders in the proceedings, especially on the side of the complainants. The Atlantic coast interests have no personal representative here, but they have sent a number of communications by wire or mail which will be enrolled on the side of the defendants.

VAN LANDINGHAM TESTIFIES. [A. P. DAY REPORT.] ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13.—The Interstate Commerce Commission began the hearing today of the complaint of the St. Louis Business Men's League against Pacific Coast railroads and their connections in the matter of discrimination against St. Louis in the fixing of freight rates. Of the commission only four members were present, Chairman M. A. Knapp, C. T. Prouty, J. D. Yeomans and J. C. Clements.

Ex-Gov. Joseph W. E. Fisher of Illinois, who was recently appointed a member, is here, but has not been sworn in. All the defendant roads were represented by counsel, as were also a number of cities other than St. Louis, which desired to join with her in the complaint of freight-rate discrimination.

H. S. Christy and Hon. W. J. Calhoun, a former member of the commission, appeared as counsel for the Business Men's League.

Attorney E. S. Pillsbury read a lengthy petition of intervention on behalf of the Pacific Coast Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, who decided to join with the railroads in replying to the complaint. On behalf of the plaintiffs' contentions, petitions of intervention were filed by the Chicago Merchants' Association, the Merchants and Manufacturers of Milwaukee, the Jobbers and Shippers of St. Paul and Minneapolis, the Kansas Transportation Bureau of Kansas City and the Commercial Club of St. Joseph, Mo.

After Attorney Christy had read the complaint, A. J. Van Landingham, commissioner of the St. Louis Traffic Bureau, was placed upon the stand as first witness for the plaintiff. His testimony was largely technical, from existing tariffs he showed how the Middle West was being practically excluded from Pacific Coast territory because of discrimination in rates. The points he expected to show were that unreasonable differences exist between carload and less than carload rates and commodity rates, that there were variations in these less than carload rates on hardware and other articles that St. Louis and other middle western jobbers could not pay freight rates to the Pacific Coast with profit. Van Landingham's testimony consumed most of the first session.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.] ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13.—At the afternoon session, Van Landingham resumed his direct testimony. He said he believed the tariff of June, 1898, was adopted as the result of some kind of an agreement between the railroads interested and the jobbers of the Pacific Coast, and cited the testimony given at the St. Paul meeting in support of this belief. He did not know of his own knowledge that such an agreement had been made, but he had heard references to a "contract."

Attorney Herrin, for the Southern Pacific, conducted the cross-examination. He could not find any evidence in Van Landingham's testimony that in his opinion something besides a mere question of meeting rail and water competition had entered into the framing of the present tariff schedule.

Charles E. Edgerton of Itasca, N. Y., who was employed by the commission to visit New Jersey for the purpose of ascertaining whether corporations chartered in that State were complying with the law, says that he found a few instances in which corporations did not display the signs of concern represented by them, on the outside walls of their office, but as a rule this requirement was complied with.

Van Landingham was asked to show that the element of ocean traffic by way of Cape Henry was very largely into the making of schedules for trans-continental traffic. He also tried to bring out the point that railroad companies ought to be permitted to make more from the shipment of carload lots than from less than carload lots, since goods in the latter case are more liable to breaking and loss.

Van Landingham rebutted this by showing that in such instances goods are shipped at owners' risk.

"Still, your jobbers are competing successfully for Pacific Coast trade," asked Herrin.

"Some of them are; others have withdrawn their capital and abandoned the territory," replied Van Landingham.

SHORT-HAUL REQUIREMENTS.

[A. P. DAY REPORT.] CINCINNATI, Nov. 13.—In the case of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway vs. the Interstate Commerce Commission, the United States Court of Appeals has affirmed the decision of Judge Sever in the Circuit Court, the case involving the controversy between Chattanooga and Nashville under the long-and-short-haul provision of the Interstate Commerce law. Charges were made against the Louisville and Nashville and other roads, that there were discriminations in favor of Nashville on through eastern freights, although that city was 150 miles farther from the Atlantic seaboard than Chattanooga. The decision is regarded as an important precedent on the short-haul requirements.

Mrs. Col. Richardson Saved by Mrs. Pinkham.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 72,596.] "You have saved my life, snatched me from the brink of the grave almost, and I wish to thank you. About eighteen months ago I was a total wreck, physically. I had been troubled with leucorrhoea for some time, but had given hardly any attention to the trouble. "At last inflammation of the womb and ovaries resulted, and then I suffered agonies, had to give up my profession (musician and piano player), was confined to my bed and life became a terrible cross. My husband summoned the best physicians, but their benefit was but temporary at best. I believe I should have contracted the morphine habit under their care, if my common sense had not intervened. "One day my husband noticed the advertisement of your remedies and immediately bought me a full trial. Soon the pain in my ovaries was gone. I am now well, strong and robust, walk, ride a wheel, and feel like a girl in her teens. I would not be without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it is like water of life to me. I am very grateful and sincerely thank your well-wisher, I have heartily recommended your remedies. I hope some poor creature may be helped to health by reading my story."—MRS. COL. E. P. RICHARDSON, RHINECLAND, W. Va.

NO METEORS YET DISCOVERED.

BARNARD'S OBSERVATIONS. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WILLIAMS BAY (W. Va.) Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] No Leonids were visible from the Yerkes Observatory last night. Prof. Barnard was working with the 40-inch telescope all night, and kept a close watch for them. He reports that the sky was exceptionally free from meteors all night, only six or eight faint ones appeared, and none of these came from the direction of the radiant in Leo.

This is a repetition of Barnard's observations of a year ago. For a night or two preceding the appearance of Leonids there seemed to be a remarkable dearth of all meteors, as if the approach of a vast army has frightened away all the smaller fry, or what is more likely, drawn them into its mighty ranks.

Prof. Barnard has spent considerable time for a few nights searching for ophephorides of the meteoric cloud. The position of this cloud in our sky has been quite accurately determined. The main body should now be entering the constellation of Leo. If the swarm is compact enough it should appear in the sky as a faint comet or nebula, or rather a nebulous streak across the sky.

Though he has searched carefully with the big Yerkes telescope, the professor has not yet discerned anything which he could identify as a meteoric cloud. In his search, Prof. Barnard has discovered many new nebulae, and one seen last night is exactly in the spot where the meteors should be.

RECORD-BREAKING WAGES.

FOR STEEL WORKERS. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Beginning January 1, next, steel-rail workers in the South Chicago mills of the Illinois Steel Company will receive record-breaking wages. Owing to the increased price of the finished product, the men, some three hundred in number, will be able to earn from $150 to $200 a month. This unusual condition is due to the fact that the company failed to meet the sliding scale of wages last June, and under contracts the new scale cannot be arranged before June 1, 1900, and cannot go into effect for six months after that date.

The sliding scale, as arranged, is based upon the minimum price for steel rails of $34 a ton, and a maximum of $34. At the minimum figure workers earn between $75 and $150 a month. The company now has contracts for 500,000 tons of steel rails at $35 a ton, and work will begin soon on these contracts January 1. The workers will, accordingly, have to be paid at the maximum rate $34, which no one ever dreamed would be reached when the sliding scale was arranged.

Accordingly, there is great rejoicing among the workmen, who expect the company will stand by the scale and pay wages which have never before been approached in the making of steel rails. The men are now running out 1400 tons of finished rails daily, which rate will soon clear up back orders and land them at the high-water wage mark.

W. C. Davis, vice-president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Tin and Steel Workers, says the nearest approach to wages which will be paid was in 1892, when the price of steel rails reached $29.

FOUND DEAD ON THE STREET.

CAUSE UNKNOWN.

Charles R. Bugbee, supposed to be a mining man from Colorado, was found lying on the sidewalk in front of the Herald office dead about 1 o'clock this morning.

Officers Flanner and Fowler were standing at the corner of Third and Broadway, when Charles Clinton called their attention to a man apparently in need of medical attention, lying on the sidewalk farther down the street. The officers went to the scene, and found Patrolman Watson of the Elms Agency, bending over the man.

At first it was thought that the man, who was lying on his face, was simply drunk, but when he was turned over it was seen that the left side of his head and face were bloody, and there was a pool of blood on the sidewalk. The man removed to the Receiving Hospital, where it was found that he was dead, although the body was yet warm.

It was then thought that murder had been done, but after investigation by the officers they expressed the opinion that the man had died either from heart disease or from injuries sustained from contact with the sidewalk. The man had apparently been drinking heavily last night. No one could be found who knew anything about him, but it is said that he was a frequenter of the Richelleu, and that a telegram had recently been sent to him from the latter place.

Among his papers was found a draft for $100 issued on a State Loan and Trust Company form, and drawn on the Foudre Valley Bank of Fort Collins, Colo. It was signed by Marie E. Derby and made payable to Charles R. Bugbee. E. T. Pettigrew, teller of the State Loan and Trust Company ## to spend their evenings well and you have made them prosperous.

This is what THE TIMES HOME STUDY CIRCLE is doing. Young men and women who have been obliged to leave the schoolroom at an early age to take their places in the world as breadwinners are given an opportunity for intellectual development which may place them on a par with those who have had every advantage.

Robert Collyer, who from the early age of 8 to 14, worked thirteen hours a day in an English factory, later being apprenticed to a blacksmith, when asked after he became prominent as a preacher, how he educated himself, replied: "A devouring hunger for reading grew in me and never left me. If there was no candle, I poked my head down to the fire, and I read while I was eating, blowing the bellows or walking from one place to another. Give me a passion like this for anything, books or business, painting or farming, mechanics or music, and you give me a lever to lift the world."

Sir John Herschel said: "Were I to pray for a taste which should stand me instead under every variety of circumstances and be a source of happiness to me during life, it would be a taste for reading." We might multiply instances of what self-culture has done for our greatest men, but suffice it to say that in time to come, such instances will be multiplied a hundredfold, made possible by such opportunities as The Times is offering in its Home Study Circle course.

Sixty-six popular studies in four months. All written by specialists. Run your eye over the list again. Can you afford to miss any of these papers? Can you find in any weekly periodical or magazine such an attractive four months' program? The Home Study Circle studies are five. They dip right into the middle of things—of history, of literature, of art. They anticipate the very things people are looking for. Our illustrated booklet announcing the courses will be mailed, free of charge, upon request.

THOSE KANSAS SWIMMERS.

A CLEAR STATEMENT.

[Correspondence Kansas City Star:] The amalgamated association of knoekers is still busy with Gen. Funston's aquatic program.

The boldest of the insurgents in the late Kansas regiment declares that Funston never swam a river during the entire campaign in Manila.

Now as to the facts.

The first formidable river encountered by the Jayhawkers was the Tullahoma, which was crossed by the engagement of March 25 (in the advance upon Malolos).

The impetuous advance from La Loma Church, anxious to cross the river about noon with the flight of the rebels who had been pouring a murderous fire into the steadily advancing line, Col. E. R. Ransom, in the morning of the engagement, who had determined to die or to die, and die they did, for thirty-nine of the forty in the squad were soon numbered.

"Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon the President for the immediate appointment of these governors. Gov. Roosevelt is particularly urgent in his championship of Gen. Wood for the Cuban billet. He wants the appointment made at once, believing that the time is ripe for civil government, and that Gen. Wood is just the man to effect the change with the best results for all concerned."

The President is inclined to agree with Gov. Roosevelt on all points except the immediate appointment. With Congress only a few weeks off, he is considering whether it would not be advisable to let that branch have a voice in the matter. A more comprehensive plan for the government of Porto Rico is now being worked into shape by Secretary Root, which will be presented in the form of a bill similar to the one now pending for the government of Hawaii.

Mrs. Leslie Carter's Quinsy.

COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 13.—The illness of Mrs. Leslie Carter, who was obliged to cancel her engagement here last Saturday, has developed into a case of quinsy. It started with an aggravated case of tonsillitis. Painful ulcers have formed in her throat, and her physician, Dr. Wissinger, wanted to perform an operation to relieve her, but she preferred to let nature take its course. Mrs. Carter will not be able to leave her rooms at the Southern Hotel before Thursday, at the earliest. Dr. Wissinger gives assurance that there is nothing alarming in her condition.

A CARD OF THANKS.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill of Beaumont, Tex. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful.—Adv.

Flexible Rubber Dental Plates
Have many advantages over the old thick, cumbersome, ordinary rubber plates, and give good results, being much lighter and more comfortable.

These plates are flexible, only a trifle thicker than heavy writing paper. Fit closer and adhere better to the roof of the mouth. Particles of food and small seeds cannot get under them. They will last longer, are stronger than any others, and will not break, as they will give first being flexible. One tried none other will be desirable. Dr. Schiffman's own process, brought to the notice of the public by him only, has made ONLY by a perfect fit guaranteed in every case of plate work.

Persons having trouble with their plates or with having plates fitted, are invited to call and consult us.

Beware of Cheap Imitators and Professional Jealousy.

It is Folly to Pay Higher Prices Than Ours

For fine Dental Work. Our modern methods enable us to do the very best dental work of all kinds without pain, at prices within the reach of all.

Our Guarantee is Good.
We refer you to the Merchants' National Bank and people who have done work for us. EXTRACTING TEETH, when best plates are ordered, ALL our work is guaranteed to be the very best. None better can be had anywhere, no matter how much you pay. Consultation and examination free. Lady attendants for ladies and children. Open evenings and Sunday hours.

See our display of Modern Dental Work at our entrance.

Pessimistic Britisher.
LONDON, Nov. 13.—A British naval officer who has just returned from a tour of the Philippines, has been interviewed regarding the situation there, of which he takes a somewhat pessimistic view. According to the published interview, he thinks that more river gunboats are needed, and that Gen. Otis is trying to run the campaign too economically.

Nerve Successfully Transplanted.
The transplanting of skin has been frequently reported lately, but the grafting of nerves seems a step further in surgical progress. A man who suffered from a circular saw loss of sensibility in the hand. Five months after, about an inch and a half of the sciatic nerve of a young bloodhound was attached to the end of the median nerve. And a similar operation performed upon the ulnar nerve. In three months sensibility was almost complete throughout the hand.

Strike Suspends Street-car Lines.
SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Nov. 13.—The Springfield consolidated street car lines were shut out today by a strike. The trouble arose over the refusal of the company to recognize the newly-organized union, and reinstate discharged employees alleged to have been out for activity in organizing the union. A

BOY CHIEF OF AFRICAN TRIBE.
A remarkable youngster of 12 years of age has just brought to London for exhibition a band of ten wild Swazi warriors out of the heart of Central Africa. This brave boy is his chief, and they obey him implicitly.

The boy is Bandini Norburn; his first name was given him by his father a South African traveler in honor of King Bandini of the Swazis. The elder Norburn acted as adviser to King Bandini for many years, and among the savages the boy has grown from babyhood.

This remarkable boy came to London with his ten Swazis to keep them in order. They are to exhibit their war dances, but not in improper places. They are not to smite people with their spears. Chief Bandini says so. He is their war lord, interpreter, protector,

Pears'

It is a wonderful soap that takes hold quick and does no harm.

No harm! It leaves the skin soft like a baby's; no alkali in it, nothing but soap. The harm is done by alkali. Still more harm is done by not washing. So, bad soap is better than none.

What is bad soap? Imperfectly made; the fat and alkali not well balanced or not combined.

What is good soap? Pears'.

All sorts of stores sell it, especially druggists; all sorts of people use it.

Miss Maybelle Rendall of South Alvarado street entertained friends with a box party at the Burbank Theater yesterday evening, in honor of her sister, Miss Daisy Rendall, who will leave today for Washington, D. C., to attend National Park Seminary during the winter. After a supper was served at Christopher & Sparks. The table was handsomely decorated with roses and ferns, the color scheme being pink and green. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Waters, Misses Mary Hunsaker, Be Bell, Maffee, Kurtz, Helen Eaton, Messrs. Sam Haskins, Karl Klokke, Wilson, Heron, Kimble, Day and Barlow.

Myra Stephens entertained friends informally at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Albert M. Stephens, No. 133 South Hill street. The affair was complimentary to the actress, Marked by silver candelabra with crimson shades, and asparagus ferns. The guests included Miss Margaret Cornwell, Reba Role, Mrs. Florence Clute, Ada Dryden, Juliette Browne, Bumiller, Daisy Moore, Messrs. David White, Trowbridge Hendricks, Alfred Grant, Albert George, Marked by Percy Wicks, Frank Brown, Pembroke, Thoms.

Mr. and Mrs. George Drake Ruddy gave the first of a series of "Sunday evenings" at their handsome new home, No. 2711 Wilshire boulevard, Sunday evening. The reception parlor was well filled with an informal gathering of musical and literary people, who were entertained by a piano recital program. The first number was an original poem on "Emerson," by Charles E. Parish of Madison, Wis.; Emerson's poem on "Nature" was read by Mrs. C. N. Flint, and his poem on "Nature" by Mrs. C. N. Flint. By special request, the hostess read her own poem, "Emerson," by Charles E. Parish of Madison, Wis.; Emerson's poem on "Nature" was read by Mrs. C. N. Flint, and his poem on "Nature" by Mrs. C. N. Flint.

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

Everything goes at wholesale, in these busy days of our season. A man at Socorro, N. M., recently dipped 30,000 head of sheep in seven working days, a task that would have occupied over a month in the olden time. It merely meant bigger tanks, more men and more wages.

The Edison Electric Company recently placed a contract with the Electric Storage Battery Company of Philadelphia for a storage battery, to cost $55,000. It is claimed that this contract will assure the people of Los Angeles an absolutely perfect service, and immunity from those interruptions which have sometimes occurred.

Thirty-five years ago, in the streets of Boise City, Idaho, an Oregon man sold a wagon load of red apples from the Willamette Valley for a dollar per pound, as fast as he could hand them out. Today the Territory of Idaho is preparing to make an exhibit of her pomological products at the Paris Exposition and believes her chances for carrying off the first prize are decidedly rosy. Bro'r Jasper's declaration that "de world do move" is constantly finding new and striking verification.

That old established granger paper, the Visalia Delta, published in the hog-and-hominy section of the San Joaquin Valley, "talks right out in meetin'," when it says there are some merchants in that place who read the newspapers to see what good and complimentary things are said about themselves and families, and who, when they have any advertisements to do, hunt for posts, billboards and theater programmes. There is not a doubt of the truth of the foregoing statements, for such people are to be found in every town and city, but when did Visalia get so that she could support a theater? That is what makes the Delta's utterances seem so cabalistic and mysterious.

The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association is trying to work up an exposition and fair, to be held in February. It is doubtful whether much assistance in this line can be expected from the orange-growers of Southern California. Even when they were less favorably situated than at present, it was not easy to get them to cooperate, as most of them expected to be paid for the fruit they exhibited. Now, however, when times are exceptionally good with the orange men, and most of the fruit is marketed systematically through the fruit exchange, they will probably be less inclined than ever to lend their assistance to an exhibit like those which were so successful in the struggling days of the industry.

Villa Park is an attractive section of Orange county that has never yet experienced much of a boom. It is claimed for that place that it is free from frost, oranges not having been touched during the past twenty years. The principal drawback to the development of Villa Park has hitherto been a dispute in regard to its water right, which has been kept up for more than five years, during which time it has been impossible to dispose of property. A recent decision of the Supreme Court has now settled the matter, and it is said that the supply is ample for ordinary seasons. A real estate office has just been opened at Villa Park by an old resident, and active development is looked for in that section from now on.

Bakersfield is wrestling with a fresher problem, as her business men fear inundation from the waters of the "Rio Bravo" when the snow melts. There are two ways to get rid of such a danger. The first is to raise the money by private subscription, which is not an easy matter, as there will always be some property-owners who refuse to bear their just portion of the burden. The other way is to hold an election and vote city bonds for that purpose, bearing a rate of interest that will prove an inducement to capitalists. The matter involves building a levee from a point below the city to the mouth of Kern River, a distance of about four miles. It is the old story. "He who would be free, himself must strike the blow."

FEVER QUARANTINE RAISED.

EXCURSIONS COMING.

The Southern Pacific officials here yesterday received a telegram from General Passenger Agent T. H. Goodman, at San Francisco, stating the quarantine at New Orleans because of the yellow fever, had been entirely removed.

It is said here that early in December the Sunset limited will be put on. John W. Gay, Jr., is in his office once more, looking after the business of the Raymond & Whitcomb excursions. He states that for the winter season he has a total of nine parties booked for California. Four of these will come by the Southern Pacific, Sunset route, and five by the Santa Fe. As heretofore published, the first of these parties came in last Saturday. The next is due December 18, and then until the end of March two or three parties a month will come.

The trains from the East continue to come in full of people. The second Santa Fe limited brought sixty, and the regular train on this road, which arrived Sunday morning, had on eight sleepers.

The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific bridge department has been making a record at Lincoln, Neb. An old wooden structure was removed, and a 160,000-pound iron bridge was put in place ready for use in seventy-two minutes. The gap to open and fill was 78 feet. Two locomotives, a bridge car and a steam winch, with thirty men to do the work, were employed in this feat. Eighty tons of iron had to be put in place and fastened so that it became one solid mass.

C. W. Colby of the Erie Express line is here.

C. E. Cline, traveling passenger agent of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, spent Sunday in the city.

Peter Harvey of the Baltimore and Ohio is in the city.

J. M. Hatch, Santa Fe agent at San Jacinto, is taking a short vacation to show Southern California to his brother-in-law, Congressman Robb of Missouri, who is here on a visit.

J. M. Campbell, in charge of the advertising of the Burlington, is here from Omaha.

LOS ANGELES PRESBYTERY.

CHURCH DISPUTE.

At an adjourned meeting of the Presbytery of Los Angeles, held yesterday at Immanuel Presbyterian Church, in the absence of the moderator, Rev. J. M. Newell, Rev. A. C. Junkin of Westminster presided. At the morning session Rev. J. R. Compton of the San José Presbytery, and Rev. R. L. Snyder of the St. Cloud Presbytery were admitted to membership. As the Vineyard Church has been without a pastor for some time, and as many of the members have moved away, it was ordered that the congregation be disbanded. Rev. J. M. Boyd was appointed a member of the Church Extension Committee. Vacancies on the committee appointed some time ago to settle the differences between the First Presbyterian Church and the Central Presbyterian Church were filled by the appointment of Rev. R. W. Clelland, Rev. J. N. Boyd and Elders Albert Johnson and R. P. Annin. Mr. Johnson was also made a member of the Dr. Marks Memorial Committee. Rev. Parker reported his inability to secure an evangelist for certain services which were to be held this winter.

The afternoon session was largely devoted to discussion of the controversy as to property between the First and Central Presbyterian churches. The latter church has secured by resort to the courts a claim upon the First Church property, and was given a mortgage on the realty of that church. Since then the Central Church has made several concessions, the last being the release of the mortgage on condition that the property should be placed in the hands of trustees for five years, and that the church should be kept as a Presbyterian place of worship. The First Church people now waive a clear title to the property. The matter was not finally settled, but remains in the hands of the committee which has had it in charge ever since the courts acted on the case.

EDWARD GERMAIN WINE

a ranch known as "Edge Hill Ranch," located near Escondido, San Diego county. The Chicago property, free from all incumbrances, was worth $15,000. A trade was proposed and finally made, plaintiff getting the Escondido ranch and giving as boot and mortgage the Chicago property. The only consideration for the mortgage was the supposed difference in value between plaintiff's incumbered Chicago and defendant's Edge Hill ranch, which had been represented by defendant, would have had a value of $30,000, whereas at the time the exchange was made, it was worth only $15,000.

The lower court found that plaintiffs were entitled to recover from defendant the difference between the actual value of the ranch and the value thereof if the same had been in all respects as stated and represented by defendant. Plaintiffs were, therefore, given back their note and mortgage, canceled, and were allowed a judgment for $2000 and costs.

Defendant appealed from the order denying a new trial, and the judgment entered upon the findings, and plaintiffs appealed from that part of the judgment that gave them a money judgment for $2000 and costs. The lower court, however, is sustained by the Supreme Court in its orders and judgment throughout.

DECISION ON FUMIGATION.

STATUTE SOUND. In the case of the county of Los Angeles against W. D. Spencer et al., the Supreme Court has reversed the judgment of the lower court for defendant, following an order sustaining a demurrer to an amended complaint without leave to further amend. The action arose over the fumigation of a lien for the expense of abating an insect pest nuisance in defendant's orchard. The suit was begun by the county some time ago under authority of an act of the Legislature, making it advisable for property-owners to fumigate under county supervision, and providing that the payment for such work be made a lien on the real estate. In this way it was hoped to minimize the scale pest. Such work is in charge of the Horticultural Commission.

Defendants in the above-entitled action demurred on the grounds that the complaint did not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, and that the statute was unconstitutional. Judge Van Dyke, at that time on the Superior bench in this county, sustained the demurrer on the latter ground principally, and an appeal was taken. His ruling made things look rather wobbly for Horticultural Commissioners in their work of stamping out orchard pests, and the disposition of the matter by the Supreme Court has been watched with interest. It is now ordered that the demurrer should have been overruled. The commission feels better once more.

WOLFSON'S INSURANCE.

MONEY PAID. Aaron Wolfson, the mysterious Main-street suicide, whose last act before his secret passing was to insure his life for $10,000, has been dead three or four months now, but his insurance policy was paid yesterday. In the afternoon, S. A. D. Jones, local manager for the New York Life Insurance Company, walked into the Public Administrator's office and handed him a check for $10,000. This relieves the company from all liability for the life insurance taken out by Wolfson, on the policy of which the count of premium was never paid. Even the revenue stamp on the paper was paid for by the company, but a receipt for the first premium was given to Wolfson when he arranged for making the insurance. Although it will be a year before the estate is settled, the money will undoubtedly go to Wolfson's family in St. Louis. The count of premium will amount to over $500, which, with other costs, may reduce the insurance funds to $9500. The name of the woman who paid the burial expenses of the mysterious suicide is still unknown. Neither the insurance company nor the Public Administrator has been able to find her out.

WATER COMPANY LITIGATION.

NEW QUESTION. Arguments in the case of the city of Los Angeles against the Los Angeles City Water Company and its co-defendants, the Crystal Springs Land and Water Company and S. G. Murphy, trustee, have been set down for January 16, 1900. The action is for an injunction to restrain defendants from continuing to divert the waters of the Los Angeles River. A motion was argued in Department Three of the Superior Court yesterday to disqualify Judge York from hearing the arguments. It was stipulated that the Judge who presided at the trial of the cause, was then and is now the owner of real property of the value of $3000, within the city limits. By city officials, the motion was made to call in another judge, a new trial will be unnecessary, the record having been carefully preserved in shorthand. This will be submitted to him, and after argument of the cause, will be left for his determination without taking new evidence. The trial of the case took over three weeks, and the testimony was of a very technical nature, civil and hydraulic engineers occupying the stand for hours at a stretch.

GENERAL COURTHOUSE BRIEFS.

MISCELLANEOUS. INCORPORATION. Articles of incorporation of the Riverside Vineyard Company were filed at the County Clerk's office yesterday, with principal place of business at Los Angeles. The directors of the company are Charles Stern, Alfred Stern, L. A. Stalder, S. Woodbridge and A. J. Stalder. The capital stock is $150,000, of which $104,000 has actually been subscribed.

PROBATE OF WILL. Louis Mockenhaupt asks for the probate of the will of Magdalena Meyers, in an estate valued at $3500.

TWO OFFENSES. F. Miller, an old man from Downey, pleaded not guilty to two informations yesterday charging him with assault with a deadly weapon, and assault with murder. The cases are set down for trial on December 11.

NEW TRIAL WANTED. Judge Smith yesterday afternoon listened to arguments on a motion for a new trial in the case of James Cussen against the Southern California Savings Bank. Cussen rented a safety-deposit box, and from it disappeared some of his valuables. Cussen got judgment.

CHANGES OF VENUE. A motion for a change of venue in the case of T. J. Read against the San Diego Union and others for $10,000 damages, was argued before Judge Mahon yesterday and the submission of the case was deferred to San Diego. The action is over a certain contract relative to the circulation of the Union.

Judge Smith listened to arguments on a demurrer in the suit for mandate of Ed B. Rives against City Recorder L. C. Hannum of Pomona, to compel the latter to call a justice of the peace to hear plaintiff's second trial on a charge of violating a city liquor ordinance. Rives alleges that Hannum will not give him a fair trial. The matter was taken under advisement by Judge Smith.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY. An information was filed in the criminal court yesterday, charging George Rowell with burglary. It is alleged that Rowell entered the house of Mrs. J. K. Hall in this city, October 14, with intent to commit larceny. He will be arraigned today.

SET FOR TRIAL. The action brought by Señora Mariana W. de Smith against her husband, C. Edgar Smith, of this city, calling for an accounting and the restoration of land and money, aggregating about $38,000, has been set down for trial by Judge Fitzgerald for January 16, 1900. Mrs. Smith is the widow of Don Antonio Coronel. The case has been much exploited.

SUPREME COURT OPINIONS. The appeal has been dismissed in the case of William Bowering et al. against Frank F. Adams et al., defendants, and Alexander Gerrard and Somers B. Fulton, defendants and appellants. The action was begun by thirty-eight plaintiffs, against thirty defendants, to quiet the right and title to seventy miner's inches of water in this county. Judgment in the case of the Commercial Bank of San Antonio, appellant, against B. F. Pritchard et al., respondents, has been reversed and an order made directing the lower court to enter judgment for the bank. Action was for the foreclosure of a $2000 mortgage.

The case of Henry Greenwalt, assignee in insolvency of William Mueller, appellant, against Mary Mueller, respondent, has been dismissed by the Supreme Court, by affirming the judgment and order of the lower court. Action was to have a certain conveyance of real property to defendant declared void, and for a decree adjudging the property to belong to the insolvent estate of defendant's husband.

Oom Paul's Doorplate. (Milwaukee Sentinel.) John G. Thomas of Chicago is probably the only man in the Northwest who has ever sold any merchandise to Oom Paul Kruger, President of the Boer Republic. In conversation last evening he said: "I owned a glass door-plate manufactory a few years ago. A year ago last July I got an order from him and forwarded it by mail to his address. It was about fifteen inches long and six inches wide, and on it, in plain gold letters, was the inscription: 'Paul Kruger, State President. I have no doubt that the plate is now doing duty on his front door, and that if the government goes under it will be found among the assets.'"

Little Off on Her Mythology. A young lady who had greatly enjoyed John Kendrick Bangs's "Houseboat on the Styx" thought it only just to write a few lines expressing her delight, relates the Chicago News. She ended her letter thus: "I did so much enjoy your Houseboat on the Styx that Mr. Bangs politely answered: 'Dear Miss: If you have studied mythology, and without doubt you have, you will realize that, considering the ungodly heat where the Styx are supposed to be located, it would be impossible for Physicians as a class are opposed to what they call 'patent medicines.' It is not often they openly endorse them. Now and then, however, some doctor who has been the eye witness of a remarkable cure by the use of Dr. Pierce's remedy, feels it his duty to tell what he knows. Dr. Joseph Pike, of Lost Springs, Kan., writes: 'I have been a sufferer from scrofula for many years, and have been treated by many of the best physicians, but without success. I have used Dr. Pierce's medicine, and it has cured me. I am now in perfect health, and have been able to do my work for many months. I have no more to say, but I feel it my duty to tell what I know.'"

For more than thirty years Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has enjoyed a larger practice than many physicians who charge large fees for their services. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made without alcohol, and is a preparation based upon his extensive experience with disease. It is a permanent medicine, pure and simple, and without alcohol, whiskey, sugar or syrup to preserve its properties, keeps perfectly in any climate for any length of time. Others may imitate the remedy; they cannot imitate its cures. Let no one talk you into using an imitation medicine as a substitute for Dr. Pierce's. Six cents a bottle. Give free, fatherly advice for treating and curing diseases of a chronic, obstinate and lingering nature. No charge is made for such consultation.

DIIZZINESS, NAUSEA, LOSS OF APPETITE. Three prominent symptoms of liver trouble. Three prominent symptoms that indicate liver trouble are dizziness, nausea, and loss of appetite. These symptoms are often the result of a diseased liver, and if not treated promptly, may lead to serious complications. Do you have headaches or dizzy spells (fig. 5), yellow eyes, a swollen complexion and tongue (fig. 6), a heavy feeling in the chest (fig. 7), irregular fluttering of the heart (fig. 8), indigestion (fig. 9), with constipation, or any of the above symptoms? If so, you need Huxley's Liver Pills. Do not wait until these disagreeable symptoms arise, but take Huxley's early. Huxley's gives healthy tone to the liver, stomach, and bowels, and increases the appetite. All persons who are of a bilious temperament should take Huxley's. Huxley's produces no ill effect, is pleasant to take and pleasant in effect. Huxley's cures all liver troubles and is a boon to all persons who live in malarial countries.

It Was the Only Alternative. Walter Wellman, the returned Arctic explorer, has a quaint gift of humor, which was happily displayed just before leaving upon his last trip to the frozen North, says the Saturday Evening Post. A pompous merchant, who does not believe in Arctic exploration because it produces no financial results, said to the traveler: "Supposing, after all this trouble and expense, you do reach the North Pole, what will you do then?" "Why, come back again, of course," replied Wellman. "There really doesn't seem to be anything else to do."

APPLES IN WASHINGTON.

LARGEST CROP EVER RAISED IN THE STATE.

Pessimistic Prophecies Prove False. Thousands of Acres More to Be Devoted to Apple-Raising—New Markets to Be Found in the Far Northwest Next Spring.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

TACOMA (Wash.), Nov. 11.—A few years ago irrigation was king in Central Washington. This fall the farmers have transferred their allegiance to winter apples, for while horticulturists elsewhere have generally experienced a bad year, they have just harvested the largest crop of winter apples ever grown in Washington. Irrigation being new in this State, many orchards did not come into bearing until this year. Great interest is centered in the results of this year's crop, since it has not been certain just what results would be obtained from fruit-raising on an extensive scale in this State. Some have argued that Washington could not hope to compete with the older settled sections of Oregon and California, and further that the market for fruit raised in this far Northwestern State would be somewhat limited. The results have been seen completely contrary to these pessimistic prophecies that thousands of acres more of the best irrigated lands in Central Washington will be set out to winter apples, pears, peaches, etc., next spring.

There are immense areas of fertile soil lying along the Yakima, Columbia and other rivers, which need only the magic touch of water to render them no less productive than the famous Sunnyside Valley, wherein the results mentioned have been obtained this fall. This year's success will cause these areas to be brought under irrigation canals in the very near future, after which Washington will become a rival of California in earnest. There is little likelihood, however, that California's markets will be encroached upon, since immense new markets are opening for the horticultural products of this State. These include Alaska, the Orient and the big mining camps of Idaho, Montana and British Columbia.

Though fortunes have been made this year in peaches, pears and prunes, it is to winter apples that the far-seeing horticulturist has decided to devote his chief attention. This is because the apples are better keepers and thus offer a wider range of market, insuring higher and more stable prices.

On a trip just taken through the Sunnyside Valley, the writer found ranches of ten, fifteen and twenty acres, whose owners are not only living in comfort and luxury, but are enabled to spend the less active winter season traveling in Europe and the Orient. There are twenty-acre farms which have brought in over $3000 this fall from the sale of apples, pears, peaches and alfalfa hay. One of these is a place that has been rented since the sage brush was first turned under, six years ago. A year ago the owner of this ranch offered to sell it for $1500, which would have netted him a good return on his investment. This year his five-year-old apple orchard has produced a greater quantity of vegetables than has ever before been grown on a similar area.

canal. This particular canal parallels the Northern Pacific Railway for forty-two miles, and with its 300 miles of branch canals and laterals waters nearly 40,000 acres. It has been located for an extension of eighteen miles, which will cover 24,000 acres more. Surveys just completed show that the canal can later be turned down the Columbia slope for another sixty miles, bringing under cultivation 200,000 acres. In anticipation of this extension, the State of Washington has here reserved the 100,000 acres of desert lands granted it by the Carey act. When these extensions are completed, Yakima county will be able to supply winter apples for almost the entire world. As it stands today, the Sunnyside canal is the greatest engineering enterprise in the Northwest. It has been brought to its present great success by the land department of the Northern Pacific Railway, under the direction of Walter N. Granger, a successful manager of irrigation enterprises in Montana. The object of the railway has been to demonstrate that irrigated land is the most profitable in the west, which fact is now firmly established.

One of the record fruit yields of Sunnyside this year was that of E. C. Chipman, whose orchard of Missouri Pippin apple trees yielded at the rate of 800 boxes per acre, selling at $1 per box. The same farmer marketed $425 worth of Salway peaches from thirty-five trees, occupying less than one-third of an acre. From a ten-acre prune orchard bearing this year for the first time, F. L. Rowland shipped four carloads of prunes to Chicago, Minneapolis and Cincinnati, receiving gross proceeds of $100 per carload. Old orchards in full bearing produce at the rate of a carload per acre.

F. E. Thompson's ten-acre orchard of Bartlett's Green apples yielded 4200 boxes, which sold in Minneapolis at $1.40 to $1.50 per box.

Similar results have followed the growing of corn, alfalfa and sugar beets on irrigated lands. A. A. Moody, who raised corn in Randolph county, Mo., for twenty-five years, has a corn field near Zillah, that produced seventy-five bushels of shelled corn per acre this year. Throughout the valley three cuttings of alfalfa were obtained, averaging eight tons per acre for the season. Alfalfa is now selling at $4.50 per ton. D. H. Correll pastured twelve head of cattle and twenty-five sheep all summer on a four-acre alfalfa field and turned them off fat this fall. Elder S. J. Harrison of the Dunkard Church, who moved last spring from Lankark, Ill., where he was engaged in business for many years, is going into stock raising on a large scale. Still another claim of settlers is represented by Capt. Whipple, master of the Tiffany yacht at New York and Newport, who has moved to Sunnyside to grow up with the country, accompanied by his bride, who have set their headquarters in the Tiffany family. While engaging in horticulture with some misgivings, Capt. Whipple has learned that many of the most successful farmers in the irrigated section were men of no more experience than himself when they started.

Sugar beets grown in the Sunnyside Valley have given phenomenal percentages of sugar juice, numerous analyses running as high as 21 per cent. in sugar contents and 95.7 per cent. in purity. These results have directed the attention of beet sugar manufacturers in California, Nebraska and elsewhere, who have sent their experts into the country to report upon the feasibility of establishing sugar-beet factories.

The fertility of the volcanic ash soil is further shown by the results obtained in Mr. Granger's garden of a quarter of an acre, where thirty kinds of vegetables, embracing a total of seventy-five varieties, were grown this year in sufficient quantities to supply the entire neighborhood. It is claimed that this quarter of an acre produced a greater quantity of vegetables than has ever before been grown on a similar area.

Civil Service Examinations.

Examinations for the position of inspectors of health and ventilation apparatus in connection with public buildings, as governed by the United States Civil Service Commission, will be held in this city today and Wednesday. The position, which pays $2190 per year, is open to all citizens who are able to pass the examinations. Examinations for the position of United States national expert will also be held at the Federal building today.

My Free Trial Treatment a Great Success

Hundreds of people took advantage of the opportunity to investigate my method of curing disease without the use of drugs during the past two days and emphatically pronounce it the greatest remedy of modern times. Men and women who had not had relief from pain for years quickly succumbed to the wonderful influence of this invigorating tonic and left our office without a vestige of the former pain apparent. If you are suffering from nervousness, lame back, kidney or stomach troubles, rheumatism, sciatica, or any sexual trouble, call at my office and let me give you positive proofs of the great merit of

Dr. McLaughlin's New Method of Electrical Treatment.

One treatment will not cure but it will demonstrate, beyond a shadow of a doubt, the great power of ELECTRICITY properly applied in the curing of the above mentioned diseases and many others that space will not permit me to name. The energy that it pumps into the nerves of weak people, turns despair into gladness, it fills the heart with exhilarating courage, warms the blood, develops the muscles and gives a feeling of youthful confidence. It has cured ten thousand people in the past three years. My success in curing and the enormous sale of my Electric appliance are both due to the fact that I have made a science of applying electricity to the human body. The method that I use now, which is protected by a patent, is the result of my twenty years' study. Electricity is useless unless you apply it right, and no electric device is of any service unless it will give a current that you can feel without burning, that you can regulate, and that will last long enough to be curative. These points expose the weakness of all other electric belts. I guarantee on a bond of Five Thousand Dollars that my electric belt is the strongest on earth, and best made, and gives a continuous current that you can feel and regulate for one year without a cent of expense for renewals.

My Chamois Cushion Electrodes allow the current to enter the body in a soothing, gentle stream without the awful burning and blistering known in other belts.

FREE BOOK:—I have just published a beautifully illustrated, eighty page book telling how I cure various diseases and weaknesses. It should be read by every one who is weak or in pain. It has full information. I will send it closely sealed, free. If you can call, it would be better, as I can demonstrate in five minutes to those who call personally, what my appliance will do. I give a free trial treatment. Let every skeptic come and get proof. DR. H. A. McLAUGHLIN, 129 1/2 West Second Street, Corner Spring, Los Angeles, Cal.

BLAIR'S CROP OF TROUBLES.

BOOZE AND BURGLARY.

Frank Blair may not have been looking for trouble when he started to get drunk last Saturday night, but he certainly found it. Blair wore a woebegone appearance when arraigned in the Police Court yesterday, and looked as though he regretted the action which landed him in the Receiving Hospital first, and the City Jail afterward, with the prospect of remaining behind the bars for some time to come.

Blair's head was swathed in bandages when he stood up before Justice Morgan to enter his plea of guilty to the charge of drunkenness. Officer Sparks, who was credited with his arrest, told how it happened. He stated that about 11:30 o'clock Saturday night a telephone message was received at the Police Station, asking for an officer at Sixth and Broadway. He hurried to the scene and found that a drunken man had demolished the fixtures of a tamale cart at that point, and made his escape. About 12:30 o'clock two citizens brought Blair to the Police Station, drunk and very boisterous, and bleeding profusely from wounds about the head. He wanted to clean out the station, but was placed in the Receiving Hospital, where his wounds were dressed, after which he was put in the drunk cell to sober up. Sparks learned later that Blair was the man who had the difficulty with the tamale vendor.

C. W. Bellinger, the tamale man, testified that Blair came to his place of business about 11:30 o'clock Saturday night and boasted about having licked a Chinaman. Not content with this victory, he began to quarrel with a white man who was regaling himself with tamales. Blair, who was in the interest of peace, and then Blair seized a stool and threw it at the tamale man. The latter dodged it, and Blair hurled at him, but the missile played havoc with the tamale stand. The lamps and windows were broken and the eggs in a chamber were hopelessly scrambled. Bellinger seized a club which he kept handy for obstreperous customers, and knocked Blair down with it. Blair staggered to his feet

NEW VARIETY OF ORANGE.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

A new variety of orange has been propagated, and samples of same are on exhibition at the Chamber of Commerce. In size it is a little larger, but in shape the fruit is similar to the tangerine orange, which is always popular, and has a ready market. Unlike the tangerine it is almost free from rag, has a very thin rind, and is perfectly seedless. H. H. Smith of Riverside, who discovered the orange, has named it the Redlands Early Seedless. Mr. Smith claims the original tree sprang from a stray seed, and is simply a freak. He is confident that the variety will be very popular, and has budded seven acres of seedlings with buds from this tree.

Burbank potatoes grown in San Joaquin county, which beats anything in the way of a potato show that has been seen at the chamber for some time. The largest is fourteen inches long and weighs four pounds. Capt. Cross says it is a sample of the potato crop he expects to haul on his new ### road between Stockton and Sacramento.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The fame of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has reached El Paso, and merchants and others of that city are very anxious to imitate the local organization. In a letter to Secretary Wiggins yesterday day committee of merchants of that city stated that business men were desirous of forming a Chamber of Commerce, and request that all matters regarding the local chamber be sent as early as possible. This is the first attempt of the merchants of El Paso to form such an organization. For some time a commercial club has been supported there, but has not been satisfactory.

AN ELEVATOR BOY'S DILEMMA.

BURGLARY CHARGED.

Harry Nash, formerly employed at the Hotel Aldine on South Hill street, as porter and elevator boy, was arraigned before Justice Morgan yesterday on the charge of burglary. Nash left the city several months ago, and did not return until last Friday, when he was taken into custody by Detective Hawley. Just prior to his coming the service of the hotel the room of Miss A. E. West, a guest of the house, was entered during her absence, and a gold watch, breastpin and a necklace were "lifted" from her bureau. Nash was suspected of the theft, but there was no proof of his guilt. After he left the city, the detectives found Miss West's watch in a pawnshop. They learned that young Nash had pawned it there under a fictitious name. Hence his arrest upon returning to the city. Detective Hawley stated yesterday that Nash acknowledges his guilt, and that he got into Miss West's room by means of a pass key. The preliminary examination of the prisoner has been set ### for next Saturday at 2 o'clock. The stolen pin and neck chain have not yet been recovered, although the detectives profess to know where they were disposed of.

Fanny Adele Admiralty Suit.

The suit brought by S. E. Slade, of San Francisco, against the schooner Fanny Adele, A. Ristum, Thomas Farrell et al., trustees, on which the plaintiff asks that the defendant trustees be enjoined from taking the schooner from San Pedro until a guarantee is given of her safe return, was on trial in the United States District Court yesterday. Slade is the owner of eleven thirty-seconds of the Fanny Adele, and claims the defendants, who own the remaining interest, were about to send the vessel to sea on a voyage to Gray's Harbor, Wash., without his consent. He also claims that when informed of the intended action he demanded that he be furnished security for her safe return. His request was ignored, he alleges, and in order to prevent the vessel's departure before obtaining security, he brought the present action.

Water Delegates Leave.

The Southern California delegation to the convention for the promotion of water conservation and the protection of forests which opens today at San Francisco, left yesterday afternoon in a special Pullman sleeper.

The organization of the Southern California delegation, was perfected Saturday when T. F. Lukens of Pasadena was chosen chairman, and C. B. Boothe, representing the Board of Trade of this city, was elected secretary. Those who will represent the South are as follows: W. H. Workman, W. H. Edison, L. M. Holt, T. P. Lukens, T. M. Gibbon, C. E. Richards, C. H. Heintz and C. B. Boothe.

BUSINESS.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE TREASURY.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13, 1939.
FLEXIBLE INTEREST RATES.
The New York deposit rate on bank balances has now remained at 2 percent for several years. It had been reduced to that during the period of extraordinary depression in business, through good times and bad, as if it were unchangeable as a law of nature. It has since remained. When interest funds are cheap and the demand is poor there is always a great deal of complaint about the deposit rate. Money comes to New York just to get this low rate, which is already too much money here. We wonder that no one makes a move for a flexible deposit rate, says the American banker. Why should not the rate which bankers pay for funds bear some relation to the market value of those funds? This is the practice of English banks, says the American banker. When interest rates are high, the rate for funds is high. Even fluctuations in the money rate occurring from week to week are reflected in the interest rate on deposits. The latter rising as money becomes dear and falling when the demand for funds moderates. Thus in the market reports, by the rate of the rate of money will be found to be the rate for deposits, varying according to the nature of the balance, whether deposited for a fixed date or at call, and in the latter case, whether at seven days or fourteen days' notice. The values of money are thus reduced to very fine distinctions, as is natural, we suppose, in a rich country, where the variety of collateral and the shades of individual credit are multifarious.

CANNED MEATS. There is a further advance in canned meats. The jobbing trade has not yet made an advance above $1.25 per box net here. But new invoices for this in carload lots will cost a good deal more than that.

THE SALMON PACK. The salmon market is in some respects an enigma to those who do not follow it. It is difficult to get all the facts before the people. Here is an article from the West Coast Trade, published at Seattle, which has been quoted in our papers, and while every word in it is probably true, it is as a whole utterly misleading.

"The limit has been raised a number of times to accommodate the record-breaking salmon pack of Puget Sound for this season. With prospects of a pack of 600,000 cases at the outside, the latest estimate places the amount put up by the various canneries to last Saturday night at 700,000 cases, with prospects for adding 100,000 cases before the fall fishing season closes, nearly doubling the largest pack made on the Sound heretofore.

"A Whatcombs correspondent to the Post-Intelligencer gives the following figures on the salmon pack to date: "Pacific American company of Fairhaven, this salmon pack ship 100,000 cases sockeyes and 45,000 cases humpbacks from their three canneries at Fairhaven, Friday Harbor and Blaine. They will can fish from the outside, and shipped a number of cars of fresh fish packed in ice. They also have 5000 barrels of salted salmon for export to Hawaii and the Philippines.

"Fairhaven Cannery Company, 20,000 cases sockeyes and 20,000 cases humpbacks.

"Astoria and Puget Sound company, Chukachan, 60,000 cases sockeyes and the same amount of other fish.

"Carlisle company, Lummi Island, 30,000 cases sockeyes and 10,000 of other fish. About half of the above pack is spring salmon. Thirty-eight hundred cases were put up in porcelain cans for the use of the wealthy classes in Europe, who are able to pay a high price for a fancy delicacy.

"Northwestern Packing Company, Blaine, 10,000 cases sockeyes and two-thirds as many humpbacks.

"Alaska Packers' Association, Blaine, 10,000 cases sockeyes.

"Rosario Straits Cannery, Anacortes, 10,000 cases sockeyes and 4000 humpbacks.

"Fairdale Island company, Anacortes, 60,000 cases sockeyes and 30,000 humpbacks.

"Anacortes Packing Company, 30,000 cases sockeyes and 25,000 of other fish.

"Myers of Seattle, 20,000.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

LOS ANGELES MARKETS.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13, 1939.
The Saturday call for poultry and turkeys took nearly all the available stock yesterday. The demand was pretty good except for turkeys, and there was very little coming in.

By the end of the week a good deal of eastern dressed will be offered. The prices will run from 12 to 15 cents per pound, including dressed turkeys.

Eggs are firm for fancy eastern and local. Stocks of the former are not very large, and receipts of the latter are very light.

Butter develops no change, the outlook seeming good, at least for maintaining present prices.

There is no change in the cheese market.

The demand for fancy cured fruit continues for the holiday trade. Nuts are also in good demand. The walnut crop is being hurried forward, and in some places only a few are left.

Potatoes, onions and beans are all firm. River Burbank potatoes are the only exception. The trade looks with confidence to a firm market on fine potatoes and onions, and on all kinds of beans during the whole season.

Lemons are very dull. The far West being indifferent to anything except the standard fruit. It is difficult to quote current prices, the views of dealers being all the way from $1.75 to $2.25 per box.

Oranges of the variety of the moving toward the end of this week from this section. The color is said to be anything but high, and color is about the only thing to commend the fruit at this time. Of course, if eastern buyers are content to pay about $2 per box net here for the fruit, growers will try to get a price in the neighborhood of $2.50 per box. For the fruit, growers will try to get a price in the neighborhood of $2.50 per box.

POULTRY. Dealers pay five weight for stock in good condition. 100 lbs. for poultry, ducks, 50 lbs. for turkeys, 10 lbs. for geese, 50 lbs. for chickens.

PASADENA.

LATEST SCHEME OF SALOONS WON'T HOLD WATER.

Saloons and "Wholesale Family Liquor Stores" are under the same law, the Anti-Saloon League says. Returned Klondiker with a Bank Account—A Pasadena Mine.

PASADENA, Nov. 13.—[Regular Correspondence.] The "def" of the saloon in the North Pasadena was issued today, but the Anti-Saloon League says it won't stand good. It was announced that, in accordance with the resolution of the Sanitary District Board, the saloons will close at a drinking place tonight, but will open again tomorrow, as a "wholesale family liquor store." The champions of the saloon claim that the county government will protect such a business, when licensed, and that the sanitary district law applies only to the retail trade, so that the saloons will be powerless to prevent the new store from selling liquors to be taken off the premises for consumption. They assert that as small a quantity as one-fifth of a gallon can be sold in this way without violation of law.

Dr. H. A. Reid, the secretary of the local Anti-Saloon League, was interviewed tonight on this new phase of the contest, and said that the league was reckoning without their host. The sanitary district law, said the doctor, "transfers the power from the regulation of the liquor traffic in the limits of a district, from the County Supervisors to the district board. The power to license or not to license and to regulate the traffic in every way, passes from the county to the district, when the latter has been set up. A wholesale store, to be licensed, as well as a retail store, and can only procure a valid one from the district board, which will refuse to grant one in this case. The saloons will be short-lived, as the board will shut it up."

Nevertheless, this new complication has increased the regret of many North Pasadenans that the community did not resort to annexation to this city, instead of setting up a sanitary district government, to get rid of the liquor business. Another feature of the situation is the reluctance, for legal reasons, of the City Trustees, to permit North Pasadena people to connect with the city sewers. There is no outlet for North Pasadena sewage except through the Pasadena sewers, and the Trustees have doubts as to their power to allow outside territory to drain into the city's pipes. If North Pasadena had voted to annex, it would have the city's outfall at their service.

The Lamanda Park saloon-keepers, Garbald and Rickard, returned tonight from Los Angeles, where they had been in conference with their attorneys, and they said they should adopt the same course as the North Pasadena man had chosen. They will start in as "wholesalers" tomorrow. Evidently the sanitary board in this district will have to resort to arrests before the contest is over. The liquor dealers are "dead game," but they would not be so full of fight, if a brewers' organization were not behind them. If they are beaten here, the same law will cut off trade in hundreds of similar districts, and it is on this account, not merely to hold the small business in North Pasadena and Lamanda, that the brewers are keeping up the fight so persistently, and at such expense.

THE NEAR-BY MINERS.

That gold mine in the mountains just north of Pasadena has been pushed along further than anybody supposed it would be, and the discoverer, J. P. Main, has had the satisfaction of seeing his name given to the cañon in the new charts of the United States survey. It will be known as J. P. Main Cañon. A tunnel 100 feet long has been dug into the Stray Horse mine, and more or less work has been done on several adjoining claims. A big strike is in sight. These operations are carried on a little way from Sierra Madre, and two or three Pasadena men are risking their last dollar in the venture. Although capitalists are now getting interested.

CITY'S PROFITABLE FARM.

The walnut crop on the city sewer farm has been sold for $3023 in Chicago, there being 37,000 pounds, which netted from 6% to 8% cents per pound. Already about $1500 additional has been received from other products of the farm since last April. The total receipts from the 320 acres will not be far from $6000 this year. The sewer farm is one of the most successful municipal institutions in the country, and it is attracting much attention from economists.

PASADENA BREVITIES.

"The Focus of Our System" was the topic of Prof. Claypole's lecture in the University extension course this evening. The doctor went back to the early conceptions of the nature of the sun, and narrated the story of the discovery of his true relations and conditions, distant from the earth, stars, etc. He described the modern view of the sun, its central mass, photosphere, chromosphere, corona, spots, changes, nature and causes of light and heat, and so on.

Mrs. Marshall H. Jewell and little son of Bismarck, N. D., arrived in Pasadena Saturday. Mrs. Jewell is the wife of the well-known proprietor and proprietor of the Bismarck Tribune, the oldest newspaper published in North Dakota. She is accompanied by her mother, Mrs. R. B. Woods, and the ladies have taken a cottage at No. 411 Kensington place for the winter.

The latest arrival in town from Cape Nome is Martin Van der, with a bank account. He was a workman for building contractors in this city, but went to Alaska and took a job in a restaurant, which panned out well, and he has brought back a little fortune.

A movement is on foot to start a uniform rank of the Los Angeles division of the rank will visit Pasadena Tent in their new uniforms next Monday evening, and try to incite the brethren here to dress up.

H. B. Daniels and wife of Boston, who have taken the Stowell house on Orange Grove avenue for the winter, arrived today. The couple are returning to their Boston home by fire, shortly before leaving the Hub.

The city is doing its own sprinkling with pretty good success, although some of the wheelmen complain that the new drivers make parts of the streets too muddy. Six tanks are doing the work formerly done by nine. Miss Elizabeth Sanborn, formerly of Newton, Mass., has purchased the residence of Mrs. Martha Flynn, No. 96 North Moline avenue, for about $7000, and will make it her home. She has spent several winters here.

Rev. Robert J. Burdette expects to return from his lecture tour about December 6. Mrs. Burdette addressed the State Federation of Women's Clubs at Atlanta, Ga.

E. Webster and G. E. Tomlinson of Pasadena, and M. Schaffer of Los Angeles will start Tuesday on a trip to Colorado, Ariz., to examine a mining property.

Special revival services will be held at the Lincoln-avenue Methodist Church Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of this week.

The Pasadena consulate of the League of American Wheelmen, will have a "smoker" at the Board of Trade rooms Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Durrant have arrived from Chicago, after a long absence. They reopened their Orange Grove-avenue home.

The Tournament of Roses Association directors will appoint their committee on and start the ball rolling tomorrow.

A surgical operation was performed in the new Pasadena Hospital today, and another will take place tomorrow.

Capt. P. A. Collins of Co. I, has recovered from his illness, and was down town today.

POMONA.

TO PHOTOGRAPH METEORS.

POMONA, Nov. 13.—[Regular Correspondence.] Prof. F. P. Brackett of the Pomona College astronomical department is preparing to make careful observation and obtain photographs, if possible, of the display of Leonid meteors which is due in a day or two.

While it is not absolutely certain that the shower will be visible here, Prof. Brackett has made preparations and has furnished several hereabouts with maps and printed directions for observing the meteoric showers.

POMONA BREVITIES.

The funeral of the late E. P. Hewlett was held yesterday from the Presbyterian Church, Rev. H. H. Rice officiating. Vicksburg Post, G.A.R., and the W.R.C. attended in a body.

The marriage of Miss Bertha Whipp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Whipp, to L. O. Hardisty of Santa Rosa, occurred yesterday at 1 p.m. at the home of the bride, No. 335 East Second street. Rev. H. H. Rice officiated.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hardisty left for Santa Rosa, their future home.

The funeral of the late Miss Henrietta Lattin was held from the home of Mrs. Rudolph Janssen, sister of the deceased, this morning. Interment was made in Pomona cemetery.

A number of citizens are interested in leasing the land north of the city for athletic grounds. The proposition is now being discussed. The purpose is to raise enough money by private subscriptions to fence in a ball ground and erect a grand stand.

Prof. David Henry of Thorpe Polytechnic Institute, Pasadena, occupied the pulpit at the Unitarian Church yesterday.

Co. D held a regular practice shoot at the rifle range yesterday.

Work has been commenced on the Lordsburg road.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY.

SMITHSON JURY DISAGREED.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 13.—[Regular Correspondence.] The case of C. C. Smithson, the hearing of which occupied most of last week in Department Two of the Superior Court, will be heard over again. Smithson is charged with the crime of grand larceny for the alleged theft of a "red calf, branded 83," belonging to the Rock Springs and Cattle Company.

The case was taken to the jury early Saturday evening. After a long session, Judge Campbell was advised that the jury was unable to agree on a verdict. The jury was discharged. This morning the case was reset for trial on January 16, 1900.

SAN BERNARDINO BREVITIES.

Jeff Harp, Charles Jost and W. A. Bowers were arraigned before Judge Campbell this morning on a burglary charge. E. B. Tyler was appointed to act as attorney for the defendants, who were given until Wednesday to plead.

Headed by Smithson, the defendants, who were given until Wednesday to plead, were taken on an early winter appearance of deadness that does not augur well. Only one explanation offers, and it is that the men have confidence in a wet winter has recently been felt.

Growers feeling secure that plenty of wet weather is ahead, have neglected irrigation in many instances. Some damage has now been done that is feared a winter of soaking rains will not entirely remedy.

ANAHEIM.

TOO MUCH CONFIDENCE.

ANAHEIM, Nov. 13.—[Regular Correspondence.] Many walnut-growers are taking on an early winter appearance of deadness that does not augur well. Only one explanation offers, and it is that the men have confidence in a wet winter has recently been felt.

Growers feeling secure that plenty of wet weather is ahead, have neglected irrigation in many instances. Some damage has now been done that is feared a winter of soaking rains will not entirely remedy.

ANAHEIM BREVITIES.

A room has been set apart in the High School building, and furnished for the school trustees. The clerk of the board will have his office there.

The first meeting in the new quarters will be held tomorrow. Late in the evening the board granted the request, and fixed the rate to be charged henceforth at 1/2 cent per gallon.

Their action meant the curbing of a freshly-born trust. Not long ago there were two water companies doing business in Johannesburg and Randburg.

On October 1, a consolidation was effected. On November 1, rates were raised 100 per cent. Then, a let-alone policy was adopted by the people of the desert towns, and the earliest means of obtaining water was adopted.

Water was bought from peddlers, who delivered it from door to door.

One of the peddlers gave testimony before the Supervisors, and acknowledged that he could make a handsome profit hauling water a distance of ten miles, selling a fifty-gallon barrel for 1/2 cent.

When the company was given its in-lining, Manager Curtis showed that his plant had cost about $20,000, and on cross-examination admitted that the profit on the investment had been about 7 per cent. at the low rates formerly prevailing.

John J. Schoenback, a prominent young business man of this city, was seriously injured today by the explosion of his shot while he was hunting in the Buena Vista Lake. Schoenback was crawling up on a band of ducks, and in doing so stuffed the muzzle of the gun with mud. When he fired, it blew up. The inch of the smaller bone of the left forearm was carried away, several leaders were severed, and the muscles were badly lacerated. The doctors have hopes of saving the arm.

Word comes of the killing of the four-year-old son of Peter Hansen, a farmer living near Delano. The child fell into the machinery of a pump operated by horse power, and the crank on the flywheel struck him across the back, breaking it.

ORANGE COUNTY.

NEW COURTHOUSE BONDS SOLD AT A GOOD FIGURE.

Spirited Competition for Them and Handsome Premiums Offered—Capistrano Men Charged With Cattle-stealing—Movement for a Storage Reservoir at El Modena.

SANTA ANA, Nov. 13.—[Regular Correspondence.] The $100,000 courthouse bonds were sold today at 101, C. Rogers of Pasadena for par and $425.25 premium, that bid being the highest submitted to the board. There was spirited competition for the bonds, several other bidders offering handsome premiums for them. When it is considered that the bonds called for only 4 1/2 per cent, it will be seen that the sale is a remarkably good one.

The purchaser of the bonds agrees to have his attorney pass upon the legality of the issue previous to December 15, 1899, so that it will be only a short while until the Board of Supervisors will be able to proceed with the preliminary work of the letting of the contract for the construction of the building. It is expected that the building will be completed within a year from the time the contract is let for its construction.

CATTLE-STEALING CHARGED.

José Maria Manriquez, Antonio Rios, Francisco and Joaquin Serano, Jr., all of Capistrano, have been arrested on a charge of cattle stealing.

The parties are all well known in the vicinity of Capistrano. They were taken before Justice of the Peace Landell, who set their preliminary examination for Tuesday of this week. A $1000 bond was fixed in the sum of $1000 each, and was promptly furnished.

The cattle, it is alleged, were stolen from a band belonging to Marco Forster, and were killed in the hills back of Capistrano.

SANTA ANA BREVITIES.

Word was received in this city today that the Supreme Court had granted the writ asked for by City Attorney Heathman, ordering Judge Ballard to settle the statement rendered the court on behalf of the city of Santa Ana, in the case of the city vs. D. Gildmacher.

William Griffith, a negro, was arrested in this city Saturday night on the charge of vagrancy and subsequently sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the County Jail.

Today Jailer Graham informed the descendant of Ham that he would have to do the jail work and proceed to perform a day's work. This the prisoner vehemently refused to do, and now he reposes in the dungeon, fasting twice a day on bread and water.

There is a movement on foot by the consumers of water in the vicinity of El Modena to construct a storage reservoir on the Barham ranch, near the foothills. This enterprise would prove very valuable to owners of property in the foothills, who are under the John T. Carpenter irrigation system.

A called meeting of the directors of the local walnut association was held this afternoon. The subject of irrigating, to take action in the matter of a member of the association selling his crop of nuts outside of the association. The member was explained of is Uriah Shafer of Orange.

José Serey, Jr., of Capistrano has been arrested on the charge of firing several shots through a window of a Capistrano home, and is now in jail, pending the peace of that mission town. He will have his preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Landell.

H. M. Newell of Tustin has sold a ranch of seventeen acres in the Ramona-Yorba tract east of Santa Ana to G. I. Field for $2000.

The new reservoir at the city water works has been inspected by the City Engineer today.

Thieves entered the premises of S. W. Sutton of this city Saturday night and stole a set of harness.

VENTURA COUNTY.

SUGAR FACTORY RESULTS.

VENTURA, Nov. 13.—[Regular Correspondence.] The first campaign at the Ventura sugar factory is over, and the following interesting statistics are given to the public: The factory commenced work on August 16, and ceased work on October 13, owing to the early rain and difficulty of securing competent beet-toppers to furnish beets in quantities sufficient to supply the immense plant.

The campaign was interrupted by a few days' rain, which less than sixty-eight days, during which time there were no serious interruptions from accidents to machinery. Under favorable conditions the campaign would last five months. Short as was the campaign, over $500,000 was paid to farmers.

The following are a few items of the campaign that are interesting: Tons of beets sliced, 67,172; pounds of sugar produced, 1,487,750; amount paid for labor, $439,000; amount paid for labor, $30,000; men employed, 550; barrels of oil used, 17,487; tons of coke used, 902; tons of lime rock used, $225; sugar bags used, 173,513.

The total amount of beets harvested was 101,000 tons. The Chino factory sliced less than 100,000 tons of beets, and which about $65,000 of profit. The lime rock came from the Ojai Valley quarries. It is expected that the next campaign will open not later than July 15.

Col. J. A. Driffl, manager of the Oxnard factory, accompanied by his wife and daughters, will sail from San Francisco for the Hawaiian Islands on Wednesday to be absent until the holidays. J. W. Rose will act as manager during Col. Driffl's absence.

TRAIN KILLS A VETERAN.

Early this morning two and a half miles west of Santa Paula, the body of an aged man was found near the railroad track, with the neck broken. The coroner's inquest developed the fact that the victim was an old soldier, who had been discharged from the army as a member of Co. H, Kansas Volunteers, under the name of Harry S. Ely.

He was found lying on the track, and was run over by a train. In a pocket was found a whiskey flask, nearly empty.

EASY GOOD. EASY BAD.

Discovers a Difference.

"After twenty years of coffee drinking and a good portion of the time suffering from severe headaches and nervousness, I finally waited up to the fact that the coffee was the cause of the trouble."

"I was led to accuse coffee of being the cause of the difficulty by reading about Postum Food Coffee. Since using Postum, I have been singularly free from any of the ailments mentioned."

"It is easy to make good Postum, and easy to make bad. The difference is in the boiling. I send you herewith a list of friends I know would be benefited by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. Kindly send them information on the subject." G. H. L. Nelson, Principal, School No. 2, Greenfield, Mo.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

DEPUTY WARD BADLY WOUNDED.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 13.—[Regular Correspondence.] Deputy Sheriff Ward, who was assaulted on the steamer Santa Rosa by Bert Ross, a convicted burglar, who was being taken to San Quentin, is believed to have been fatally hurt. The flesh on the officer's head was badly torn, five wounds were inflicted, and he has not yet recovered consciousness. He is in the hospital at San Luis Obispo.

Mrs. Ward and Miss Ward, wife and daughter of the wounded Deputy Sheriff, are on the way to the city. Ross, who was a hotel thief, and sent up for ten years, stated that he did not intend to take Ward's life, but wanted to stun him with the blows, take the keys to the shackles from him and make his escape in the crowd of passengers at Port Harford. Sheriff Stewart of Santa Barbara took the prisoner to San Quentin.

SAN DIEGO BREVITIES.

The Lamorna, a British ship, Capt. William Cormack, arrived at this port Sunday evening from London, bringing a cargo of 20,000 barrels of cement. The boat went out 145 days from London, numerous storms having been encountered during the voyage. During a storm in mid-ocean upon the Atlantic the boat passed the bodies of a man and two women, each wearing cork life preservers. It was impossible for the Lamorna to pick up the corpses.

A new mining company has been formed at Encinitas, and articles of incorporation filed, to be known as the Encinitas Copper and Smelting Company, with a capital stock of $500,000. The directors are C. F. Holland, H. MacKinnon, W. K. Holland, and J. A. MacKinnon.

During last week the El Cajon Packing Company disposed of six carloads of two-crown Pacific raisins, one and one-half carloads of three and four-crown, and two carloads of seedless raisins. Three hundred and sixty tons of raisins were stemmed by the packing company this season. During October twenty-nine carloads of raisins were shipped from El Cajon Station alone. Other shipments from El Cajon during October, estimated in pounds, included: Grapes, 15,000; lemons, 11,330; miscellaneous, 15,800.

G. W. Wearing, representing eastern fish packers, is in the city investigating conditions of the fish beds in this part of the Pacific. Scarcity of fish on the Atlantic coast is forcing the packers to look for new sources of supply on the East to search for locations upon the Pacific. Encinitas and San Diego are considered very favorable locations for fishing industries by Mr. Wearing.

The remains of Mrs. Mary A. Stewart of Berkeley, Cal., who died last week at the home of a daughter at Lincoln, Placer county, were brought home by Mrs. Stewart's sons, who had been in the city for the funeral. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. J. E. Holck.

CORONADO BEACH.

GEN MILES DUE WEDNESDAY.

HOTEL DEL CORONADO, Nov. 13.—[Regular Correspondence.] A dispatch has been received from the General of the Army, Nelson A. Miles, stating that he and the members of his party will arrive at Coronado for a sojourn on three or four days.

President D. C. Gilman of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, and Mrs. Gilman, who came west to be present at the ceremonies attendant upon the inauguration of President Wheeler at Berkeley, Cal., yesterday, making a brief visit to Southern California before returning East. They arrived Saturday at Hotel del Coronado.

As the hotel is the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jewett, formerly a Rough Rider, is spending a few weeks at the hotel. For several months past he has been engaged at his old (N. M.) ranch.

Mrs. W. K. Jewett and Miss Fraulman went to Los Angeles today for a brief visit before leaving for Colorado Springs, Mr. Jewett's home. Mr. and Mrs. Jewett will return to Southern California next year to build a winter home.

Mrs. E. R. Smith, Mrs. T. J. Balch and family, and Miss Grace Williams of Chicago, will spend the coming winter at Coronado, guests at the Redona Inn.

A. B. Daniels, a Denver business man, accustomed to spending the winter in California, accompanied by his wife and family, were arriving Saturday at Hotel del Coronado.

Capt. and Mrs. J. S. Sedam, also of Chicago, returned for another season at this resort.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Allen of Chicago, are at Coronado awaiting the return of their daughter, Elizabeth, from San Francisco. They will take passage for Yokohama and Australia, and will visit Paris and the continent.

Mrs. Amy Strong has returned from a trip to Paris and London. Miss Clara Ingle, who accompanied Mrs. Strong, has continued her journey to Egypt, and is expected to return to Coronado in January.

SANTA MONICA.

FRATERNAL CONSOLIDATION.

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 13.—[Regular Correspondence.] Santa Monica Encampment, No. 55, I.O.F., holds its last meeting as a separate encampment tonight. It will be consolidated Friday evening with Orange Grove Encampment, No. 21, of Los Angeles. Grand Patriarch Foster of San Diego will preside.
